DEDICATION

FOREWORD

First of all, I wish to say that the promotion and publication of this work is due entirely to the interest and untiring efforts of Mr. Everett J. Conrad, and I think that all of us relatives owe him a deep debt of gratitude. Should any future orders for the book be desired, though the edition is very limited, kindly address them to him, c/o Conrad Publishing Company, Bismarck, North Dakota.

This book naturally consists of two parts: the first, regarding the ancestors of myself and my brothers and sisters, with our paternal cousins, the second, regarding the ancestors on Mother's side, which also includes those of our maternal cousins.

PART I, Chapter I, treats of the more remote generations we were able to trace; i.e., the ancestors named in the VIIIth, IXth, Xth circles of the family Chart or tree in the left semicircles. Chapter II treats of ancestors in the VII circle. And so on down to the hub of the wheel, or circle.

PART II, Chapter I, gives the information found concerning the maternal ancestors, those on the right half of the Family Tree, or Chart, in Generations VIII, IX, X, and XI. And, as in PART I, each succeeding Chapter deals with the ancestors in semi-circle VII, VI, V, IV, III, etc.

This arrangement enables any relative who wishes to carry his own ancestors down to the present by adding those that may not be included in the present work, assigning the proper Chapter to the missing generations.

The author will gladly furnish any information that may help any relative desiring assistance in understanding the given material, and when possible, in extending his line down to the present.

Rec'd Sept. 28-1978

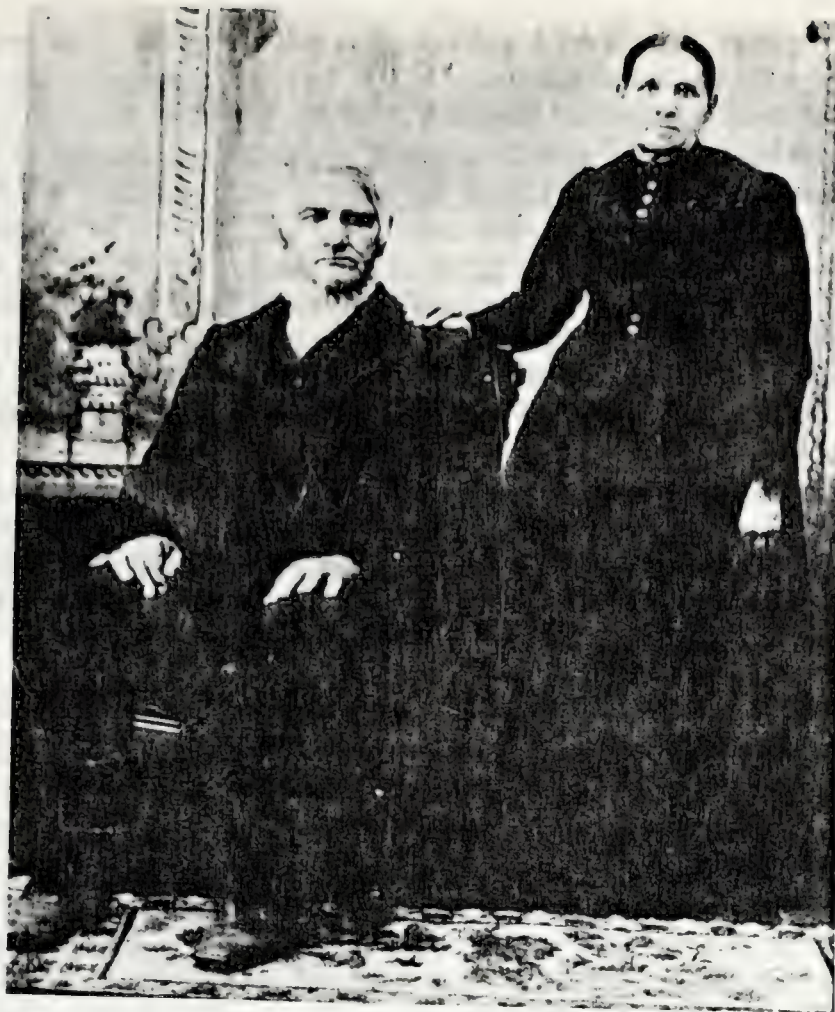

DEDICATION

This book is respectfully dedicated to the honor of my parents, the late Dosithius E. Gervais and Olivine Roy-Gervais, whose loving devotedness for the welfare of their dear children was ever so alert to make them become model Christians and good citizens.

PREFACE

The following pages are the result of the only hobby I ever had, so far as I can recall. It was prompted at the outset by my curiosity to find out if possible who my ancestors are and where they came from. This urge did not develop all of a sudden, however, and it did not come at all until Brother Benedict and I obtained permission (I think it was in the summer of 1928) to take a vacation trip to Canada. While visiting our Canadian confreres in Montreal, one of them suggested an auto ride to visit their College of St. Cesaire, and of course, we were only too pleased to take advantage of the offer, for it meant an interesting ride of some forty miles into entirely new country for us. That good Brother had attended Summer School at Notre Dame, Indiana, and knew that our Mother had been born and baptized in the parish of St. John the Evangelist, for I had told him about it. So, hardly had we set out, when he told us that we were going to pass that way out, have supper at St. Cesaire, and come back by the more direct route.

As we pulled into the town of St. John, about 25 miles to south and east, we saw an elderly gentleman sitting at ease before the marketplace, and I asked the driver to stop, for I wanted to ask for directions to the old farm where Mother was born. Moreover, I suspected that he was Grandma Roy's youngest brother, for she had told me years before that he was the Market Master — and sure enough, he was; market hours were over for the day, and he was resting a bit before going home.

Time was all too short for such a happy meeting, he gave us directions to the old farmstead where Mother was born, promised to send me a history of the parish of L'Acadie in which both our grandfathers were baptized, and we regretfully bade him good-bye, and thanked him most cordially. But it was this meeting and the book that awaited me on our return to Notre Dame that really gave me the idea of starting the hobby. However, the lack of "know-how" and of spare time prevented any actual work on the idea for a period of five or six years, till two Blessed Sacrament Fathers from Canada, while visiting with their confreres in Chicago, knocked at my door. Father Moses Roy introduced himself and his companion and added that he thought we might be cousins. He had met our cousin on Mother's side, Miss Lucille Sigo, after services in Notre Dame Church in Chicago, and she had given him my address. Our conversation naturally dwelt largely on our possible relationship and my book, the "Histoire de L'Acadie", which he said he would like to borrow for a week and return it by mail. It had lain in the bottom of my trunk ever since Mother had read it and found it intensely interesting, as she had known many of those people when a girl of twelve in Canada. I gladly let him have it, and he dutifully mailed it back at the end of the week. Nothing else happened till about a month later when Lucille forwarded me a letter from the good Father naming all of our maternal ancestors in the Roy direct line, adding that he had gleaned all that information from my book and from Tanguay's "Dictionnaire" of the Canadian Families.

This really stirred me to action, for it was vacation time, and with this information in hand, I began to study ways and means to plan my course of action. I consulted books on Genealogy in the University Library, and wrote to Mother that I needed some funds to pay for some copies of documents from Canada, in order to get started on Dad's side of our family tree. She replied favorably, with a check of $25.00, with which I was able to get the required information. But I still needed that set of Tanguay's seven volumes, which I had never seen and didn't know how I might secure it, for I had been told that it was out of print.

It was right after the funeral of our Brother Andre, at the Oratory of St. Joseph in Montreal, on my birthday, January 12, 1937, when I was due to return with my companion, Brother Cyprien, C. S. C., that I asked him if he knew where I could find a set of Tanguay. The old Brother knew just where to find it, and I selected one of the two sets that the dealer happened to have among his second-hand books. He set it aside for me till I should get back to headquarters and get permission to send him the check of $18.00 he was asking for it. Permission granted, I soon got the volumes.

By September, 1939, my rough draft of the family tree was pretty well in hand and I got permission to spend some weeks in Canada for a vacation, most of which I spent in checking against documents on file in various localities in the Province of Quebec and to make copies of the more important ones for my clan book. Naturally, my time did not permit making copies of all of them, for some of them were so difficult to read, so faded from old age, or so lengthy and in part so unimportant, that I had to be satisfied with the essentials. Most of this copying had to be done for the records pertaining to the first 5 or 6 generations, for Tanguay's Dictionary was too ancient to cover the period they involved.

Doubtless, it is possible that this work contains errors here and there, but I have tried to avoid them as much as possible. At least, it gives a general idea of our ancestors and their children for the past 300 to 400 years, which is certainly more than I expected to be able to do at the outset.

Not a few think that genealogy is a loss of time and have told me so. I think that next the love, adoration, praise, and thanks that we owe to our Creator for having created us, redeemed us, and promised us a heavenly mansion in His kingdom, we owe a definite regard, love and respect for all those ancestors of ours who have cooperated with Him in bringing us into this world, labored and suffered for us all the while we were in infancy and growing to maturity, to feed, clothe, and educate us, and above all, to give us the priceless inheritance of the true and only faith established on earth by Our Savior for our eternal happiness, --that of the Holy, Apostolic, Universal, and Roman Catholic Church. What a debt of gratitude this is!

Of the hundreds of couples that figure as direct ancestors in this tree, only two individuals, Lawrence Granger on Father's side, and Martha French on Mother's side, were not born of Catholic parents; but they became Catholics before they married Catholic spouses. Lawrence is the progenitor of practically all the Grangers who have lived in Canada and the United States since his time. I am told that a few of his non-Catholic relatives settled in the neighborhood of Boston and have some descendents. He was born in Plymouth, England, and, probably, so was Martha French, or perhaps born in Deerfield, Massachusetts, of parents who also came from Plymouth. But more about these two later.

Our family tree, a chart 17 inches square, is the foundation of this book of family registers and is really necessary for the orderly perusal of this clan book. It was arranged in circular form, with our Father and Mother at the center, from which radiate their direct forebears, generation by generation, as far back as we could find trace of them. Each circle represents a generation, and each outside the center has twice as many couples in it as the one preceding. The first 5 circles are complete; the outer ones are not, for there are some couples belonging in them that we could not find in the records. The progression from the center is then: 1, 2, 4, 8, 16, 32, 64, 128, 256, 512, 1024 couples, which means that the eleventh circle, if complete, would have 2048 names in it. Surprising, isn't it? This never occurred to me till I had to draw the diagram of the chart. This explains why the writing becomes so small in the 11th generation. The 5 complete generations show only 31 couples, whereas if the 11 were complete, we would have in all 2047 couples in the whole chart, or 4094 names of individuals. How many did we find? You are at liberty to count them.

Why do I call this chart a tree? Simply because I'm air-minded, I guess, and because when a real tree is viewed from above, it looks round. Perhaps ancestral chart might be a better term. Of course, you have probably seen such charts depicted as a bare old tree, with a few names printed on its knotty trunk and branches, and so have I; but that sort of thing never appealed to me at all; moreover, how could I use such an old foggy scheme for OUR tree? Let's be more modern and air-minded, while we keep the conventional name. And please remember that I had to begin with our parents and work gradually back as far into the past as I could; but that in our clan book we begin with that distant past and come gradually back to the present, thus just reversing the process. This will permit those of us who married and had issue and their descendants likewise, to keep this clan book going down our line by simply adding at the end their respective family registers.

THE GERVAIS CLAN BOOK

Part I

Paternal Side

The Gervais Family Tree, or chart, is the guide you need to follow intelligently the material presented in this book, because it is the index of all the families whose registers appear in this volume. The first half of the book is devoted to the Paternal Side only; the second half, to the Maternal Side alone.

Chapter I includes the data we gathered for each couple indicated in the VIIIth circle of the chart, along with that belonging to the occasional couples appearing in circles IX and X. Chapter II does likewise for all the couples in circle VII, and so on for the other Chapters. Note that each couple is numbered consecutively in each circle on the chart, beginning at the verticle line. Hence, Chapter I opens with Martin Gervais & Perette Aucillon, the parents of our first pioneer in America, Rene Gervais. Then it continues with Pierre Joussetot & Ozanne Drapeau, couple 2, the parents of René's wife, Marie Joussetot. And so it goes for the rest of circle VIII on the Paternal Side, thus completing the longest chapter of them all.

CHAPTER I.

Paternal Side

MARTIN GERVAIS & PERETTE AUCILLON

Generation VIII, Couple 1

The only information we were able to gather about these parents of our first ancestor to settle in Canada, René Gervais, we quote from his register of marriage, dated Nov. 10, 1669, still on file in the Archives of the City of Quebec.

"...René Gervais,...son of the late Martin Gervais and of Perette Aucillon, his father and mother of the parish of St. Vincent de Nieuil-sur-Lotise, Diocese of La Rochelle..."

The city of La Rochelle is a seaport off the Island of Re in the Bay of Biscay, and was then, as it is even now, the seat of the Episcopal See of La Rochelle. In 1669, this Diocese included the old Province of Aunis and the present Diocese of Luçon in old Poitou Province, a condition that lasted from 1648 to 1821. A curious coincidence is that our Mother's first pioneer in Canada, Pierre Roy, also came from the same diocese as René Gervais and both landed in Canada in 1666, probably as soldiers of the same French regiment. Today, the Diocese of La Rochelle occupies the whole of the Department of Charente-Inferieure.

The French Protestants under the influence of Calvin had become known as Huguenots. (Catholic Encyclopedia, Vol.VII). Persecution and even massacre resulted from this rebellion against our Faith, and probably induced many of our forefathers to seek asylum in New France. The Diocese of La Rochelle was particularly afflicted.

It is very probable that Martin & Perette Gervais had several other children, but all our efforts at tracing them failed miserably; but the French revolutionists probably destroyed all the church records and the civil ones as well. At any rate, I found none prior to 1793. So you see that I wasn't able to trace our ancestry back as far as Adam and Eve, the way a certain O'Toole claimed the Irish can; and when he was asked how he got by the Tower of Babel, he claimed that the Irish still speak the same language as our first parents, the only language that was not changed. "But how did they get by the flood?" he was asked. "Oh, that's easy; the Irish had a boat of their own".

CHAPTER I

PIERRE JOUSSELOT & OZANNE DRAPEAU

Parents of MARIE JOUSSELOT(VII, 2)

Generation VIII, Couple 2

Quoting again from Marie Joussselot's marriage record with René Gervais, she was "...the daughter of Pierre Joussselot and of ~~the late~~ Ozanne Drapeau, of the parish of Langeon, Diocese of La Rochelle". Thus, we know that the mother was dead at the time of this wedding in 1669. We find elsewhere that Marie had three sisters who came to Quebec and married there.

NOTE:--- Tanguay's Dictionnaire of Canadian Families furnished us most of the data given above.

The year of Jeanne's birth and baptism is an approximation that we made ourselves. We had no time to verify any of the dictionary data against existing records on file in Quebec archives, except for records relating to René Gervais and his family, copies of which are given with his family register, in Generation VII, Couple 1.

This Dictionnaire, published in the 1870's, has been out of print for decades: It consists of seven large volumes in the French language, by the Abbé Cyprien Tanguay, based chiefly on the Catholic Church records in Canada; but Vol. VII did not appear till 1890. The work contains many errors, but without it, I could never have done nearly so much in tracing our origins to France. It wasn't till after attending the funeral of our Brother André, C.S.C., Jan. 12, 1937, in Montreal, that I was able to find a second-hand set, to continue what I had done by correspondence for the first five generations.

Paternal Side

ROBERT LEFEBVRE & JEANNE AUTIN

Generation VIII. Couple 3

Parents of PIERRE LEFEBVRE(VII,2)

ROBERT LEFEBVRE and his wife JEANNE AUTIN were both members of the parish of Holy Trinity, Bois-Guillaume, in Normandy.

The probability is that they were both born, married, and buried there, or at least in the Diocese of Rouen; for it was from there that their son Pierre, baptized in 1652, came to Montreal, and married at Laprairie, in 1673.(See Gen.VII, Fam.2)

NOTE:- Lefebvre, perhaps the most common name in Canada, means the smith or iron-worker, much like the word smith in English, and the proper name Smith is the most common family name in the English language.

Paternal Side

PIERRE GAGNE & MARGUERITE ROSEE(married in 1639)

Gen. VIII, Couple 4

Parents of MARGUERITE GAGNE(VII,2)

PIERRE GAGNE, from Courcival, in the Diocese of Le Mans, and was buried May 18, 1656, at Quebec, Canada, where he had died of slow fever. Gabriel Drouin, genealogist, Montreal, says that Pierre was from St. Come-de-Vair, Province of Perche; but this not agree with the account of Tanguay, who gives May 1, 1656 as the date of Pierre Gagne's burial.

MARGUERITE ROSEE, daughter of Jean Rosee & Catherine Barbier, born in 1615, in France. Her parents were from Jossé, Diocese of Le Mans, then in the old Province of Maine, now in the Department of Sarthe. After the death of her 1st husband, she married William Etienne, June 17, 1657, in Montreal, the son of Louis Etienne & Jeanne Anzon, of Rouen, Normandy. There was no issue to this marriage, and she died sometime after the year 1681.--Drouin.

Their Children (according to Tanguay)

1. LOUIS, b. in 1639, called Bellavance, married on Oct. 4, in 1673, at St. Anne, P.Q., to LOUISE PICARD, d. of John & Marie Caron, who was baptized 29 Sept. 1659, in Quebec. Issue: 4 boys, 6 girls. She married William Lemieux, widower of Eliz.Langlois, Oct. 12, 1699, at Cap St.Lenace: 1 boy, 2 girls. She was buried at St.Valier, P.Q., March 8, 1717, and William, at Berthier, Oct. 15, 1725.--Tanguay.
2. MARGUERITE, b.14 Sept.1653, in Quebec,P.Q.; married in Quebec, Jan. 10, 1667, at the age of 13 yrs., 9 mos., to (1)MARTIAL SAUTON, son of Martial & Thiphen Musar, from Aigre, Angoumains, France; died after 2 boys had been born. (2)PIERRE LEFEBVRE, Robt. & Jeanne Autin; born in France in 1652; m. 4 Sept.1673, Laprairie,P.Q.; buried 5 Apr. 1694,Laprairie. 6 boys & 4 girls were born of this union, and their mother died 26 Mar. 1726, at Laprairie.--(See Gen.VII,Family 2).

NOTE: - The parents of Marguerite Rosée, Jean Rosee & Catherine Barbier, should appear in the IXth Generation, or circle, of our Family Tree; the insertion of them was overlooked before the chart was printed. b means baptized; d, daughter.

Paternal Side

JEAN BABEU & MARGUERITE BOULANGER

Gen. VIII, Couple 5

Born, married, died in France

JEAN BABEU, Chevre, on the Isle of Oleron, off La Rochelle, Bay of Biscay, West Coast of France, in the Diocese of La Rochelle. MARGUERITE BOULANGER, his wife. They had a son, André Babeu, who came to Canada and married Anne Roy, daughter of Pierre Roy & Catherine Ducharme, at Laprairie, P.Q., Nov. 14, 1689. (See Gen. VII, Fam. 3). Whether André had brothers or sisters remains undetermined. Spelling variations of BABEU: babeuf, babeux.

The twelfth day of January, 1672, there was solemnized in this church the marriage of Mr. Pierre le Roy living in the parish of Laprairie de la Madeleine, son of Charles Roy and of Jeanne Boyer, his father and mother of the parish of St. Michel le Clou in Poitou, Diocese of La Rochelle, with Catherine Ducharme, daughter of Mr. John Ducharme, wood-worker in Paris and of Anne Lelievre, her father and mother. The three banns previously published without opposition, said marriage was made in the presence of Mr. Carion, Fiacre Ducharme master wood-worker, Nicholas Boyer and of several others who signed according to law. (Signed): M. Carion Le Merlé de haupray Pier Caillé Pierre peras t. rebuttel G. Perot, Pastor."

Paternal Side

CHARLES ROY & JEANNE BOYER

Gen. IX, 11th Couple

Pierre Roy's parents, born, married, buried in France

As set forth in the certificate given above, Charles Roy and Jeanne Boyer lived in the parish of St. Michel-le-Clou, in the old Province of Poitou and Diocese of La Rochelle. It is a little country parish, about three miles from Fontenay-le-Comte, the nearest railway town, now in the Diocese of Luçon and the Department of Vendee. While in France in 1937, I visited the place, had an interview with the Pastor, who told me that families by the name of Roy lived in the parish, but that he was certain they knew nothing of their ancestry. I also visited the Department of Archives in la Roche-sur-Yon, the capital of Vendee, and the officer in charge brought me an armful of the oldest documents he had, none of which went back further than 1789. The French Revolution had done away with the civil records and these of the Church as well; the best I could do was to work my hobby in Canada, where I could go back 400 years.

Please note from your copy of the Gervais Family tree that there is in our veins more of this Charles Roy blood than there is of the Gervais line, for Charles comes in twice on Dad's side and only once on Mother's side. This means that Dad & Mother are cousins; this relationship will be shown when the proper time comes. Note, also, that I am not making a separate chapter for the couples in the 9th, 10th, and 11th generations, because these are represented so infrequently. (See Charles Roy and Jeanne Boyer, Gen. VIII, 1st couple on Mother's side, and on Dad's side, Gen. IX, 11th couple, and Gen. VIII, 39th couple.)

We next consider the parents of Catherine Ducharme, John Ducharme & Anne Lelievre.

Catherine Ducharme's parents lived and died in Paris, France

Here again we have to refer to the marriage certificate of Pierre Roy, in which Jean Ducharme is said to be a wood-worker, probably a cabinet maker, carpenter, etc., and that he and his wife, Anne Lelievre, lived in the parish of St. Benoit (Benedict) in the city of Paris, where their daughter Catherine was baptized in 1647, according to Abbé S. A. Moreau, Pastor of St. James the Lesser, in his Histoire de L'Acadie, published in Montreal, in 1908. He further says that Catherine was known as daughter of the king, that is, a good but poor young girl brought up in France, in a charitable institution subsidized by the King, then sent to Canada to wed some good colonist. From this we gather that Jean Ducharme & Anne were either very poor, or that one or the other or both had died, and so left their Catherine to the charity of the State.

Paternal Side

BERNARD DE NIGER & MARGUERITE RAISIN

Married in 1669, in France

BERNARD DE NIGER, baptized in 1627, French soldier of the Carignan Regiment, under the Count of Trémont; came to Canada, probably in 1672, where their 2nd, Jean, was baptized. We did not find the father's burial record.

MARGUERITE RAISIN, baptized in 1651, in France, became the mother of 4 sons & 3 girls; buried 21 Nov. 1700, at Laprairie.

BAPTISM OF RENE DE NIGER, Contrecoeur, P.Q. "The 21st day of April in the year 1684 by me Benoit Duplein Missionary priest from the Seminary of Quebec filling the pastoral functions in Fort St. Louis was baptized in said place René son of Rene Denigé and of Marguerite Raisin his wife and born the 27th day of the same month in the same year. The sponsors were René Poupert and Marie Lebert wife of Charles Robert called Deslauriers, Jean de Paris called Champagne having held the child over the font as proxy. The Father of the child and also the sponsors having declared not knowing how to sign the register according to law. (Signed): B. Duplein priest".

NOTE: - I quote this baptismal record as an illustration of how errors occur even in Canada, where priests were usually quite careful in making their records. 1. Apparently, the dates of baptism and birth are reversed; the child was not baptized before he was born. 2. the Father's name is not René, but Bernard.

Paternal Side

FRANÇOIS TESSIER & MARIE BRUSNE

Gen. IX, Couple 21

Parents of Pierre Tessier

From the marriage certificate on the previous page, you will note that this couple were natives of the parish of Bury in Zainteonage (meaning the ancient Province of Saintonge, whose capital was Saintes, now the capital of Charante-Inferieure, which includes the seaport of La Rochelle. In 1666 when Pierre Tessier married in Montreal, his father had died and his mother still lived in the parish of Bury. It would be difficult to find how many other children they had. We sometimes find TESSIER spelled BESSIER.

Paternal Side

(Omitted in the Tree)

JEAN VARIN & JEANNE BOUCHE

Gen. IX, Couple 22

Parents of Catherine Varin

In the marriage certificate on the previous page, we also find that Catherine Varin's parents lived in the parish of Limboef, in Normandy; but when she & Pierre Tessier married in Montreal, they were both of the same parish, and so she must have emigrated to Canada sometime before 1666. Rouen was the capital of the old Province of Normandy, but is now the capital of Seine-Inferieure, because Normandy was split up into 5 Departments after the Revolution of 1789, the 4 others being: Calvados, Orne, Manche, and Eure. How many other children this couple had we do not know.

JEAN PIERRE DANIAU & MARGUERITE VAILLANT

Generation VIII, Couple 14

Parents of Frances Daniau

JEAN PIERRE DANIAU, baptized in 1651, in France, married there in 1669, came to Quebec before 1681, and died at Repentigny, P.Q. and was buried there on the 12th of Nov. 1687. Daniau has several spellings: Daniaux, Dagneau, Deniau - nickname, Laprise, which may have some allusion to snuffing tobacco.

MARGUERITE VAILLANT, baptized in 1646, in France, seemingly lost the first three of her girls born in France, Françoise, the 4th, being the only one to come with her parents, apparently in 1679 or 1680; they had no boys, and the 5th and 6th girls were born in Canada, where both must have died young. We found no records of the burial of any of them.

JACQUES SURPRENANT & LOUISE BOQUET

Parents of Jacques, Gen. VIII, No. 15

LOUISE BOQUET, his wife, likewise, so far as our records go, never left that old Province of Perche, whose inhabitants were called Percherons and which was renowned for its fine horses, known everywhere as percherons. The present counties or Departments of Orne & Eure et Loir occupy just about the same territory; its capital was Mortagne.

ANTOINE DENOTE & CATHERINE LE DUC

Parents of Jeanne Denote, VIII, 15

As said in the Marriage record on the previous page, this couple were living in the parish of St. Germain in Paris at the time of the wedding, and this is the extent of our information about them, except that the translation omits that the church in question is St. Germain L'Auxerrois, the parish church of the Kings of France in Paris, from the 12th to the 16th centuries, to distinguish it from two other churches of St. Germain in that city. This beautiful, stone church still stands; it has a fine porch of five arches, beneath which open 3 richly sculptured 13th-century portals. The interior has a nave and four aisles; it contains fine glass and good modern frescoes.

Paternal Side

All we know about Gabriel Beauvais is that he was a farmer in the parish of St. Martin, at Ige (eezhay), somewhere in France. It may well be that he and his wife were born in the late 1500's, as their son Jacques was baptized in 1624; he was the only one of their children to settle in Canada. Marie Crevier was probably native of the same part of France.

Paternal Side

This couple were from La Fleche, a town in a southerly direction from Le Mans, (Sarthe), about midway to Angers, the capital of Mayenne, even at the present time. Martin & Julienne probably died at La Fleche, and Jeanne was the only one of their children to migrate to Canada.

GABRIEL BEAUVAIS & MARIE CREVIER
Parents of Jacques (Gen. IX, 31)

Generation X, Couple 61

All we know about Gabriel Beauvais is that he was a farmer in the parish of St. Martin, at Ige (eezhay), somewhere in France. It may well be that he and his wife were born in the late 1500's, as their son Jacques was baptized in 1624; he was the only one of their children to settle in Canada. Marie Crevier was probably native of the same part of France.

Paternal Side

This couple were from La Fleche, a town in a southerly direction from Le Mans, (Sarthe), about midway to Angers, the capital of Mayenne, even at the present time. Martin & Julienne probably died at La Fleche, and Jeanne was the only one of their children to migrate to Canada.

MARTIN SOLDE & JULIENNE LE POTTIER
Parents of Jeanne, Gen. IX, 31)

Generation X, Couple 62

This couple were from La Fleche, a town in a southerly direction from Le Mans, (Sarthe), about midway to Angers, the capital of Mayenne, even at the present time. Martin & Julienne probably died at La Fleche, and Jeanne was the only one of their children to migrate to Canada.

This couple were married in 1666, probably in France, but their first child, Jeanne Turpin, was born and baptized the same year, in Quebec. Isabelle, or Elizabeth, their 2nd, as we have seen (previous page), married Raphael Beauvais. Alexander was baptized in 1641, and his wife in 1638. He was Master of Arms in Quebec, but when and where he was buried was not found. His wife Catherine was buried in the Church of Montreal, March 9, 1683.

As seen on the previous page, Alexander Turpin wed Charlotte Beauvais, daughter of Jacques & Jeanne Soldé, in Montreal, Oct. 30, 1684, and had 4 sons, 4 daughters from this union. Then she died in Dec. 1700, when he was 60, and Feb. 25, 1702, he married Marie Gautier, then 13, daughter of Pierre & Charlotte Roussel, again in Montreal. His 3rd wife married again in 1709 in Montreal, and so Alexander must have died there before that year.

NOTE:-- Most of the data given above was gleaned from Tanguay's Dictionary. In 7 volumes, but the book, Nicholas Roy and his Descendants, in French, by Edmond Roy of Quebec, furnished a few corrections. Naturally, I couldn't copy the whole book, but I did copy the record of the burial of Anne Le Lieve, translation of which follows: (wife of Nic. J.) "The eleventh of January 1728, by me the undersigned priest, missionary from St. Michel, was buried in the cemetery of St. Vallier the body of the late widow Roy, deceased at the age of 88 or 89 years from no disease whatever. Eight days previously by precaution she had received the Holy Viaticum. The whole parish assisted at the funeral. Leclair, Priest".

In the early records of most of the Roy pioneers, the name appears as LE ROY, but note from the above that already at that date it is simply ROY, and this tendency appears in practically all the 30-odd lines of the name, in Canada. Most important of all, I want to call attention to Generations IV & V of this line, where certain difficulties in determining our connections occurred in trying to trace the ancestors of JEAN-ALEXIS ROY. These will be explained in their proper place.

MARRIAGE of MARIE JEANNE LE ROY (4th child), copied from Nicolas Le Roy et ses Descendants, by Edmond Roy of Quebec. "Under date of July 31, 1679, we find in the registers of Quebec, the marriage of Marie-Jeanne le Roy, aged 14 years, daughter of Nicholas Le Roy, farmer of La Durante, and of Jeanne le Lieve, her father and mother, from the parish of Saint-Bemi, in the city of Dieppe. Diocese of Rouen, and of Jean Gottreau, farmer of Vincelot, aged 27 years, son of Jean Gottreau and of Marie Rouer, his father and mother of the parish of Sainte-Catherine, at Flotte, Isle of Re, Diocese of la Rochelle. This marriage was blessed by Rev. Thomas Morel missionary priest from the Seminary of Quebec, in the presence of Nicholas Le Roy, father of the bride, of Gilles Gottreau, brother of the groom, and of Oliver Morel, from la Durantaye." -- From the Contract by Gilles Rageot, July 25, 1679.

BAPTISM of ELIZABETH Le Roy (No. 8). L'Ange Gardien, 1671. "In the year of our Lord one thousand six hundred seventyone the twenty-fourth of May, I baptized in the chapel of L'Ange Gardien a child born of Nicholas le Roy and of Jeanne Lelievre on the 18th of May. Her godfather was Pierre Testu and her godmother Elizabeth Aubert wife of Bertrand Chesney called la Garenne. She was named Elizabeth. Fillon, priest, missionary."

BAPTISM of JEAN Le Roy (No. 9). 1674, L'Ange Gardien. "In the year of Our Lord Jesus Christ one thousand six hundred seventy-four on the 15th of July I baptized a child born of Nicholas le Roy and of Jeanne le Lieve born July 15th. His godfather was Jean Bertrand called la Garenne. His godmother Magdeleine Trudelle, the child named Jean. Fillon, priest".

Paternal Side

SEBASTIAN ALAIRE & PERINNE FLEURISSONE
Parents of Charles, (Gen. IX, Couple 48)

Generation X, Couple 95

This couple lived in the parish of St. Philibert, in the diocese of Luçon, in old Poitou, France, and never came to Canada. But their sons, Jean and Charles, came to Quebec and married there, the former on Dec. 12, 1662, and the latter on Nov. 10, 1663.

Paternal Side

FIACRE FIEVRE & JACQUETTE DE SOL
Parents of Catherine, Gen. IX, 48)

Generation X, Couple 96

From Niart, France, living in the parish of St. André, this couple must have spent their last days in that location, for the only one of their name in New France is their daughter Catherine Fievre, wife of Charles Alaire. The spelling of Alaire is found to vary in the Canadian records: Allaire, Alere, Halaire, Dallaire, D'Alere.

Paternal Side

MARTIN DUFILLE & FRANÇOISE LEMERCIER
Parents of Remi, (Gen. VII, 13)

Generation VIII, Couple 25

From the marriage record of Remi Dupille, son of this couple, and dated Jan. 8, 1682, Quebec, we gather that his parents were both dead at the time, but had been of the parish of Ponchon, in the diocese of Beauvais, this city now being the chief center of Oise and about 30 miles north of Paris.

Paternal Side

PIERRE LAGOUÉ & MARIE BOISCOCHIN

Generation VIII, Couple 26

Parents of Anne (Gen. VII, 13)

From the marriage record Anne Lagoue with Remi Dupille, we find that she was the widow of the late Pierre Valiere, who had lived on the Riviere des Roches (Rocky River), in the diocese of Quebec; but from Tanguay we find that she was the daughter of the couple named above, and had married Pierre Valere in Quebec, Sept. 8, 1670; they had 8 children. Her parents were of the parish of St. Etienne, Le Mans, in the old Province of Maine, but now the County Seat of Sarthe.

Paternal Side

GREGOIRE LECOMPTE & FRANÇOISE VASSOT

NOTE: - Since Pierre Leclerc (Gen.VII,10) and Jean Charles Leclerc (Gen.VII,15) have the same parents, they are brothers; the 1st degree of relationship. Their children are 1st cousins, related in the 2nd degree. In Gen.VI,5, Madeleine Leclerc is therefore 1st cousin to Jean B. Leclerc (Gen.VI,8) i.e., they are related in the 2nd degree. In Gen.V,3 Madeleine Leclerc's boy, Jean Alexis Roy, is 2nd cousin to M.Louise Leclerc (Gen.V,4) i.e., related in the 3rd degree. In Gen.IV,2, we have Jean Alexis Roy related to his wife, M.Anne Dupille, in the 4th degree, or 3rd cousins. Other examples of relationship will be pointed out as they arise.

Paternal Side

PIERRE CREVET & MARIE CATHERINE LE MERCIER

Parents of Marie Crevet (Gen. IX, 64)

Generation X, Couple 128

The contract at the top of this page gives us all the available knowledge on this couple, both of whom must have lived and died in the parish of Bertranville, Normandy.

NOTE:-- This completes our findings for Generations VIII, IX, and X in the Mose Gervais quadrant of our tree. We now continue the same generations in the REEFCCA SURPRENANT quadrant.

Paternal Side

JACQUES SURPRENANT & LOUISE BOQUET

Generation VIII, Couple 33

Parents of JACQUES, Jr. (VII, 17)

These parents of the first pioneer of the name in Canada lived and died in the parish of St. Martin, in the old county of Perche, bordering on the S.E. of Normandy, but depending at that time on that of Maine, and now does not appear on maps of present-day France. The inhabitants were known as Percherons, and so was the well-known breed of black horses they raised.

This same couple appears in generation IX, No. 29, as ancestors of our grandfather, Mose Gervais, whereas they appear here as ancestors of Rebecca Surprenant, his wife. This means that our grandparents were cousins. Look at your tree, Gen. 5, J.B. Surprenant; then Gen. VI, 4, Marie Surprenant; both have the same parents and so are brother and sister, first degree of relationship. Rebecca is then in the 4th degree and Moïse in the 5th degree, which means that she is his $3\frac{1}{2}$ cousin, and needed no dispensation to marry him.

Paternal Side

ANTOINE DENOTE & CATHERINE LE DUC

Generation VIII, Couple 34

Parents of JEANNE (Gen. VII, 17)

So far as we could learn, this couple belonged to the parish of St. Germain, in Paris, France, where they must have lived and died. Their daughter, Jeanne Denote came to Quebec and was married there: (1) June 7, 1667, to André Robidou; (2) to Jacques Surprenant, Aug. 16, 1678, at La Prairie, near Montreal.

Paternal Side

JACQUES BEAUVAIS & JEANNE SOLDE

Generation VIII, Couple 35

Parents of Raphael (Gen. VII, 18)

This couple's family register was given in Gen. IX, 31. To save space, we do not repeat it here.

Paternal Side

GABRIEL BEAUVAIS & MARIE CREVIER

Generation IX, Couple 69

Parents of JACQUES (Gen. VIII, 35)

See Gen. X, 61, which is also identical.

Paternal Side

MARTIN SOLDE & JULIE LE PORTIER

Generation IX, Couple 70

Parents of JEANNE (Gen. VIII, 35)

Identical with Gen. X, 62.

Paternal Side

ALEXANDER TURPIN & CATHERINE DE L'OR

Generation VIII, Couple 36

Parents of ELIZ. or ISAB. (Gen. VII, 18)

IDENTICAL with Gen. IX, 32.

Paternal Side

DENIS LEMAISTRE & CATHERINE DEHARME

Generation VIII, Couple 38

Parents of DENISE (Gen. VII, 19)

About all we know of this couple is that they were citizens of Paris, and that their daughter Denise came to Montreal and was married there (1) to Pierre Perras, Jan. 26, 1660; (2) to François Cabel, Oct. 9, 1684. She was buried Oct. 30, 1691, after her massacre by the Indians. Cote St. Laurent, near Montreal, on Oct. 19, 1691.

Paternal Side

CHARLES ROY & JEANNE BOYER

Generation VIII, Couple 39

Parents of PIERRE (Gen.VII,20)

This couple appears in Gen. IX, 11, in the Moïse Gervais quadrant of our tree, where we find their son Pierre, the pioneer of this Roy line, and his wife Catherine Ducharme had a daughter Anne Roy (Gen.VII,3). Now, in this Rebecca Surprenant quadrant, we find Madeleine Roy, her sister, married to Jean Perras (Gen.VI,10). This means that our paternal grandparents, Moïse and Rebecca, are cousins in another way. Anne and Madeleine, sisters, are related in the 1st degree. Coming down Madeleine's line, we have Mary Anne Perras (2nd degree), Laurent Surprenant (3rd), Jacques Surprenant (4th), Rebecca (5th). Doing the same for Anne's line, we have André Babeu (2nd), Mary Anne Babeu (3rd), Jean B. Gervais (4th), Bart. Gervais (5th), Moïse Gervais (6th). So we have Rebecca related to her husband Moïse from the 5th to the 6th degrees and therefore $4\frac{1}{2}$ cousins, or if you prefer 4th cousins once removed. To avoid repetition, we refer you to what has already been written about Charles Roy & Jeanne Boyer.

Paternal Side

JEAN DUCHARME & ANNE LELIEVRE

Generation VIII, Couple 40

Parents of CATHERINE (Gen.VII,20)

Jean Ducharme was a worker in wood, cabinet maker or carpenter, and the couple were members of St. Benoit Parish in Paris, France. Catherine was baptized in 1647. Perhaps her parents died in her childhood, and she became what was known in France as a Daughter of the King, that is, a girl of good parentage in an institution subsidized by the king until of marriageable age, and then sent to Canada to become the wife of some worthy soldier or colonist.

Paternal Side

LAWRENCE GRANGER & MARY LANDRY

Generation VIII, Couple 49

Parents of CLAUDE (VII, 25)

LAWRENCE GRANGER, a Protestant sailorborn in Plymouth, England, lived in Boston for a year or two, then went to Port Royal, Nova Scotia, with Thomas Temple, Governor of Acadia, where he became a Catholic and married Mary Landry, in 1667, by Father Molin. Most people of the name in the United States and Canada are descendants of this Pioneer in America.

MARY LANDRY, René & Perrine Bourg, born in 1648, Port Royal, bore him 5 boys, 3 girls, died at 70, and was buried Oct. 26, 1719.

Paternal Side

RENE LANDRY & PERRINE BOURC

Parents of CLAUDE (Gen. VIII, 49)

According to the census of Acadian families made by Mr. Randin, sent to Bishop Colbert of Quebec, Nov. 8, 1671, René Landry the Elder was 53 years of age (born in 1618, probably in Brittany, France), and his wife Perrine was 45. They were probably married in France before coming to Nova Scotia.

The great difficulty in trying to do accurate work in genealogy in old Acadia is that so many of the Catholic Church records were destroyed by the British at the time they expelled and dispossessed the greater number of those French Catholics. Many of the dates are inaccurate in the census records of those illiterate people and were probably got by simply consulting the parents concerned, without checking against official records. Possibilities of omissions and errors are numerous. From Flacis Gaudet's notes on file at St. Joseph University, Memramcook, N.B., René was born in 1618, same as the census indicates, but Mary Landry's birth, 1644 in the notes, and 1646 and 1647 in the census. How decide which is correct? At the census, of the seven children 4 of the girls were married: Henrietta Pelletret 30, Jeanne 28, Mary 25, Marie Margaret, 23; unmarried: Magdelaine 15, Pierre 13, and Claude 8. The following family register can be only approximate:

This couple were apparently pioneers in Acadia, but we have been unable to gather any further information about them.

Variations of the name: Pourc, Bour, Bourcuc.

THE MELANSON BROTHERS OF GRAND PRÉE.-- Charles Melanson and his older brother Pierre (Peter) came to Nova Scotia with the Governor, Thomas Temple, in 1657. They were born in Scotland, Protestants, but they became Catholics to marry Acadian women. As near as we could figure, Charles was born about 1642 and married Marie Dugas, daughter of Abraham & Marie Marg. Doucet, about 1663; whereas Pierre, born about 1632, married Marie Margaret Mius d'Entremont, daughter of Philip Mius & Mad. Ellie, in about 1665. Names vary so much in spelling and the lack of harmony in the various census records available that errors are unavoidable, it seems. We have tried to approximate as much as possible.

Two of Charles Melanson's daughters, Madeleine and Marie, married Belliveau boys. See VIIIth Gen., couples 51 & 54.

10 June 1716 Port Royal

Pierre Comeau seems to have come with Razilly to Port Royal in 1632 at the age of 26. He was 43 when he married Rose Bayols (also spelled Bayou). Strange to say, of their 9 children, we find two Pierres and two Johns. The 1st Pierre was generally known as the Esturgeon; the second, as the Loups Marins. These nicknames to distinguish one brother from the other came from the 2 localities up the Port Royal River occupied by them, and which appear on the ancient maps of ancient Acadia. Naturally, when the English took hold of that region in 1755, these names, like most others on those early maps, were changed. Their numerous descendants are scattered all over the United States and Canada, some of them deported to the West Indies and Europe, not a few of these latter having found their way back to America.

Paternal Side

DENIS LEMAISTRE & CATHERINE DEHARME

Generation X, Couple 256

Parents of DENISE LEMAISTRE (IX, 128)

This couple remained in France, and probably died in Paris, where their daughter Denise was born and baptized in 1636. How she came to emigrate to Canada does not seem to be of record; but from her family register above, she made quite a contribution to the colony in New France, and crowned it by her death at the hands of the Iroquois.

NOTE: -- Authorities seem to doubt that René Gervais had two sons named JACQUES, one of them holding that there was only one Jacques, who married twice. The burial records surely tell a different tale; look at their burial dates.

René Gervais may have been a soldier at one time, for it seems that his nickname indicates this, the custom being in the French Army to give each soldier a nickname to distinguish him from others of the same family name. By trade, he was a mason, which caused him to move from one locality to another quite frequently. At one time, he is found plying his occupation in Detroit. This may account for our inability to find the burial data for either him or his wife.

BAPTISM of JEAN GERVAIS, preserved in the register of Notre Dame, Quebec, for 1683. "The 5th day of February, 1683, by me Pier Thury priest filling the functions of pastor in the parish of Charlesbourg performed the baptism for John son of Remy Gervais citizen of St. Antoine and of Marie Joussetot his wife, privately christened yesterday by Rev. de Bernieres Vicar General of his Excellency the Bishop of Quebec and born this February 3rd. The godfather was Jean le Rouge, master surveyor of this country and the godmother was Barbe DuBost daughter of Toussaint DuBost of Quebec, who declared that she could not write nor sign this register according to law. The godfather signed: JEAN le ROUGE. THURY." (DuBost is usually spelled Dubau)

MARRIAGE of NICHOLAS ROY & Madeleine Leblond, with the permission of Pierre George Roy, Director of the Musée de Quebec, copied from a book, "Nicholas Roy and his Descendants", by Joseph Edmond Roy.

"The eighteenth of November 1686, the publication of the 3 banns having been made both in this parish of Sainte-Famille and in the mission of La Durantez by Rev. Canon Pinquet of Quebec performing the pastoral duties there, for the future wedding between Nicholas le Roy aged 25 son of Nicholas le Roy and of Jeanne Lelievre, residing at the Durantez, of the first part; and Marie Madeleine Leblond, daughter of the late Nicholas Leblond and of Marguerite Leclerc, wife of Jean Rabouin her second husband of this parish, of the second part; and no impediment having been discovered to said union, I, pastor of said Sainte-Famille undersigned gave them the nuptial blessing according to the usage of the Church, in the presence of Jacques Billodeau, Jean Rabouin, David Asselin and Nicholas Leblond, brother of the bride, who all declared not knowing how to sign. (Signed): F. LAMY."

Tanguay's Dictionary lists this Etienne as the son of Nicholas Roy & Jeanne Lelievre, and also as that of his son Nicholas. Evidently, this is an error. Etienne properly belongs here as indicated at No. 2 above, but with additional marriage data:

NOTE: - the marriage record of this family may exist somewhere but we failed to find it. No contract of marriage in Quebec.
 Cauchon is often spelled Cochon, which in French is the word for pig. I wonder if Gov. Hog of Texas mightn't be a descendant of these Cochons. You may recall the names of his 3 daughters: Ima, Ura, and Sheza.

NOTE:-- Tanguay, in his Dictionary of Canadian Families, has made several errors in regard to Jean Gervais. See next page.

In Vol I, Tanguay gives the correct baptismal date, Feb. 5, 1683, for Jean Gervais, son of René Gervais & Marie Joussselot; but in Vol. IV, when he comes to Jean's marriage, Tanguay does not say whose son he is, because he could not find any record of this marriage -- and no one else has ever found any either. How were we to prove that this Jean Gervais and no other is the one that married Anne Lefebvre? His baptismal certificate would prove that he is the son of René & wife, but this all. A genealogist in Montreal had told me that our Jean is the son of Mathieu Gervais, but he could not prove it. Fortunately, when I walked into the Department of Archives in the Old City Hall to seek the proof I needed, the first official I met was a man by the name of Jean Jacques Lefebvre. On showing him the rough draft of my family tree, he smiled and said: "You and I are cousins; you see Anne Lefebvre belongs to my line as well. Did you find the marriage record of Jean Gervais?" "No", I replied; "but I am looking for a proof that this Jean is really my ancestor". Then he told me that he had made his family tree and had found half a dozen proofs; then pulling a drawer of his desk open, he handed me a document that did the trick to my satisfaction, all in French, of course. The translation of it reads as follows:

"In the year One Thousand Seven Hundred Twelve on the sixteenth Day of August at three o'clock in the afternoon before us James Alexis de Fleury Deschambault Lord Counselor of the King and his Lieutenant General of the district of Montreal in the ... room where we hold audience

"There appeared Marie Louise Vendandaïque widow of Jacques Gervais residing in the little village of St. Joseph near Quebec who told us that she had in virtue of our orders attached at the end of this document presented to us this day caused to assemble JEAN GERVAIS PATRNL UNCLE OF MARIE LOUISE aged seven years FRANÇOIS aged five years And JACQUES aged three years minor children of the said Deceased and of the said Marie Louise Vendandaïque... to have said JEAN GERVAIS appointed Guardian of said children..." Beyond any doubt, then, Jacques and Jean Gervais are brothers.

BAPTISM OF JEAN GERVAIS. -- On file in the City Hall of the City of Quebec. "On the fifth day of February 1683 by me Pierre Thury priest exercising the pastoral functions in the parish of Charlesbourg Jean son of Renay Gervais residing at St. Antoine and of Msrie Joussselot his wife privately baptized yesterday by Rev. de Bernieres priest vicar general of his Excellency the Bishop of Quebec was given the full rites of Holy Baptism, having been born on the third of this present month of February. The godfather was Jean le Rouge, Master Surveyor in this country and the Godmother Barbe du Bost citizen of Quebec she having declared her inability to write or sign this document, the godfather signing: Jean le Rouge Thury."

Since Jacques and Jean Gervais are brothers, both are sons of the same parents, René Gervais & Marie Joussselot. The marriage of Jean Gervais & Anne Lefebvre is said to have occurred in 1706 at Laprairie because the first of their children was born May 17, 1707, at Laprairie, where the mother and all the other children were born and baptized.

Notes about the children of Jean & Anne Gervais.--

Jean Baptiste, the eldest "born about May 17, 1707 was baptized 15 days later", according to our cousin Jean Jacques Lefebvre which is not in accord with Tanguay. The pastor who buried him calls him in the record of his burial the oldest of the guardians of the Church at Laprairie. One of his sons married Marie Louise Brosseau at Laprairie in 1765.

Baptism of Marguerite Françoise Gervais. The records of Laprairie say she was baptized Oct. 24, 1708, whereas Tanguay gives only the year. Her burial at Laprairie, 1731, folio 59. "In the year 1731, this 4th of Oct., was buried in the cemetery of this parish the body of Marguerite Gervais deceased this night, fortified by all the Sacraments, aged 23 years, daughter of Jean Gervais and of Anne Lefebvre, members of this parish. Her burial took place the evening of the same day in presence of a great number of citizens. (Signed): Nicolas albert Couturier priest".

Baptism of Suzanne Gervais. Tanguay is probably in error in saying that she was born and baptized on the same day, Dec. 8, 1710. She was married May 18, 1733, gave birth to her son Charles, Apr. 10, 1734, and died the same day, buried the next, and her son buried on the 13th. Her husband, Charles Tournas, wed Marie Deniger, daughter of Jean & Catherine Surprenant, at Laprairie, Nov. 21, 1735, by whom he had about 5 children.

Baptism of No. 10, François Gervais. Tanguay has him baptized May 7, 1721, which is yet to be verified.

NOTE:- You have probably noted the variations in spelling, the lack of capitalization of proper names, and the omissions in punctuation in these old records. In translating them we have kept as close to the originals as possible. In those colonial days the emphasis on these details was evidently not so important as we consider them today.

DENEAU varies in spelling: Denau, Denaut, Denaud, Deniau, Deno. DANIAU: Dagneau, Dagniau; but never Denau, etc.

MARRIAGE of JEAN FRANÇOIS NOUEL and VERONICA COCHON, City Hall, Montkagny, P.Q., 1733. (Translation from the French).

ANGELIQUE GREGOIRE, Nic. & M. Anne Mondoux 2 boys, 1 girl

Jean B. Granger was born in exile son of Chas. & Marg. Lanoue, his 2nd wife, in 1763; but was baptized only in 1775, three or four years after the family had established themselves at Laprairie, P.Q. One of his boys was baptized at L'Acadie, P.Q. according to the record there for 1808, folio 277: "January 18th 1808 by us undersigned priest was baptized David born today of the legitimate marriage of Jean Baptist Granger & Angelique Gregoire living in this parish. The godfather was Olivier Hébert and the godmother Marie Lanoue. Lancro, priest". In 1828, this David Granger married Elizabeth Roy at L'Acadie, and in 1848, the couple moved to Kankakee Co., Illinois, where their son Ambrose Granger married Marcelline Touchet, in 1862 at Bourbonnais, two sons of whom became priests, Ambrose and William, whereas a 3rd son David Granger, married Eugenia Bérard, whose son David III married Anne Jarvis, daughter of Isaac Jarvis & Marie Maythieu. The Rev. Ambrose D. Granger, (1863 - 1926) had a monument erected to the memory of his parents in the cemetery of the Church of the Nativity, Bourbonnais, with the direct line of his ancestors graven upon it; this while he was pastor of St. Rose Parish, Kankakee.

We had the pleasure of accepting an invitation to dinner with Rev. William Granger, Pastor of Irwin, Illinois, while doing some research, and he obligingly took us to view the family monument in the Bourbonnais cemetery.

Our line breaks away from theirs through Charles II, half-brother of Jean Baptist Granger; in other words, we descend from the first marriage of Charles I, and they from his second marriage.

The only sister of the Fathers Granger became a Sister of the Congregation of Notre Dame, in Montreal; their brothers Henry & George became merchants in Kankakee, Alexis became a lawyer, Pierre studied for the priesthood and had to quit on account of ill health, and Joseph studied in St. Viator's College.

NOTE:-- Since this family appears in the Vth Generation on the maternal side, and also in the VIth generation, paternal side, our mother is related to our father from the 4th to the 5 generations, their daughter in the 4th & son in the Vth are sister and brother, which makes our Mother & Father 3rd cousins once removed, or 3 1/2 cousins. When I told Mother of this, she was very much surprised. This is the closest relationship between them and, of course, required no dispensation; but they are more distantly related in several other ways.

NOTE: - From the 6th generation down to the present, this work simply had to be done entirely by correspondence, actual research in the original records, and the laborious copying of the material desired,--if it could indeed be found.

Even in more remote generations it was necessary to do some of this work -- and more of it should have been done -- but time and opportunity, not to mention funds, were very much of an obstacle. Moreover, those old records are not the most legible. For many of them, besides the fading of the script, are generally lacking in punctuation, capitalization, uniform spelling, clear abbreviations, etc., to say nothing of occasional errors.

This family register alone required many hours of painstaking labor, as you may understand from the translations of the French records that follow.

NOTE:- The information on the parents and the first two children of this family was taken for granted from Tanguay, who gives absolutely nothing on Marie Anne. We could not find out where she had been baptized, nor if other children were born to her parents; but we copied her burial record at L'Acadie, from the register for 1822, which indicates that she must have been born and baptized in 1773. "The 26th of March, eighteen hundred twenty-two, we undersigned priest buried in the cemetery of this parish the body of Marie Anne Dupille, wife of Alexis Roy, farmer of this place, deceased yesterday in this parish, at the age of 49 years. NOTE:- Tanguay's Dictionary gives this data, except the marriage, an extract of which record follows at Laprairie:

"In the year seventeen hundred forty-nine, on the 14th of July after having published in the announcements at our parochial Masses on three consecutive Sundays the promise of marriage between Jean Baptiste Surprenant, son of Laurent Surprenant and of Jeanne Beauvais, of the parish of Montreal, of the first part; and Marie Anne Perras, daughter of the late Jean Perras and of the late Magdeleine Roy, of this parish, of the second part; the same publications having been made in the parish of Montreal, without the finding of any impediment or opposition, I undersigned priest, Pastor, of this parish of Laprairie de la Magdeleine, received their mutual consent verbally and gave them the nuptial benediction according to the rite prescribed by our Mother Holy Church, in presence of François Jerome and of Pierre Urtebise, Etienne Bariteau, witnesses, and of Laura surprenant, father of the groom and of Clement Perra, brother of the bride, who all, with the groom and bride, declared that they knew not how to sign, except François Jerome who signed with J Bte Moquin, brother-in-law of the groom. Moquin François Jerome Jacques Desnirés oriest". (Laura above means Laurent)

As for the family register of this couple's children, Tanguay's Dictionary mentions absolutely nothing, and the only one we were able to find in the records is LAURENT, the very one we needed most. (Named after his grandfather).

The father and mother of this family were probably cousins of the same name and married while still in exile, but we failed to find any account to prove this. The year of birth of each was established from the age given in their burial records, which are on file at L'Acadie and which we translate below. They probably had more than 8 children, for in 1763 they and their five children (1 boy and 4 girls), with a lot of other exiled Acadians, appear in a list (Ottawa Report, 1905, page 195) of the French who desired to enter France. We have found no boy of theirs who was born before 1763. We failed to find the records for the baptisms of the first five girls; but the burial record of Anne indicates the year of her birth by giving her age. (See Gen. IV, couple 3). Also, for her marriage.

The baptismal record for No. 6. Laprairie, 1768, folio 152. "The 21 of April 1768 I undersigned Pastor of Laprairie de la Madeleine baptized Marie Rose born this day daughter of Amand Landry and of Magdeleine Landry his wife. The sponsors, Jean P. Perra who signed with us and Marie Magdeleine Landry who could not sign. Jean Baptiste perra Jacques Desligneris Priest." The burial of No. 6. "The 9th of May 1768 I undersigned Pastor of Laprairie de la Madeleine buried in the cemetery of this Parish the body of Marie Rose deceased the day before at the age of 18 days the daughter of Amand Landry and of Magdeleine Landry his wife. The burial was done in presence of Pierre chabot and of Jacques Charles who declared that they did not know how to sign. Jacques Desligneris Priest".

BAPTISMS OF Nos. 7 & 8. Laprairie, 1769, folio 210. "April 10, 1769, I undersigned Pastor of Laprairie de la Madeleine baptized conditionally Jean Bte and absolutely Pierre both born on said day sons of Amand Landry and of Magdeleine Landry his wife. Joseph Broux and Frise Fournier signed; the others declared that they did not know how. Joseph Broux Française Fournier Jacques Desligneris Priest".

(Broux is a new way to spell Brault.)

Burial of No. 7. Laprairie, 1769, folio 213. "The 29th of April 1769 I undersigned Pastor of Laprairie de la Madeleine buried in the cemetery of this parish the body of Nean Baptiste deceased the day before yesterday at the age of 18 days son of Amand Landry and of Magdeleine Landry his wife. The civil contract of marriage of Jean B. Gervais & M. Josette Dupuis, by Lelanne, dated Laprairie, 3 Aug. 1788, rambles on for pages too numerous for incertion here, but fails to give his age, except to say that he was of age, and that she was 22 years old, that his father was deceased, and that her mother, Catherine Deneau, was also deceased. The rest of the agreement is chiefly consists of naming a lot of relatives, stating that the parties agree to share their belongings according to law, and enumerating what they already have.

The church ceremony took place 8 days later, at St. Philippe, Aug. 11, 1788, and the record reads as follows:

"August eleventh 1788 after the publication of the 3 banns of matrimony at our parochial Masses on 3 consecutive Sundays between Jean Baptist Gervais son of the late Gabriel Gervais and Marie Anne Amable Babeu of this parish of the first part; and Marie Josette Dupuis daughter of Jean Dupuis and of the late Marie Catherine Deneau, also of this parish, of the 2nd part; there having been no impediment found to said marriage, we pastor of St. Jean François Régis undersigned received their mutual consent and gave them the nuptial blessing according to the rite prescribed by our mother Holy Church and in the presence of André Babeu uncle, Jean Baptist Surprenant uncle of the groom, of Jean Dupuy father, Bart. Dupuy the uncle of the bride and of several others, who including the spouses do not know how to sign. J. Gamelin pastor of St. J. f. Régis".

For the 2nd Marriage record of this couple, see next page.

2nd MARRIAGE of JEAN B. GERVAIS. Parish of St. Philippe, 1810, folio 10. "February 19, 1810, after the publication of 3 banns of matrimony at our parochial Masses on 3 consecutive Sundays between Jean Baptist Gervais, aged 58 years, widower of the late Josette Dupuis, and farmer of this parish, of the first part; and Marguerite Foucher, aged 42 and residing in this parish, widow of François Larivé, former laborer of the parish of Verheres, of the second part; no impediment or opposition having been discovered to said marriage, we undersigned priest, with the assent of the relatives received their mutual consent of marriage according to the rite prescribed by our Mother Holy Church, and this in the presence of Jacques Gervais brother, in lieu of father, of Jean Baptist, Isaac and Bartholomew Gervais, sons of the groom, of Joseph Demers & Eustace Demers, Louis Poissant, Louis Dupuis, Celestine Dupuis, Laurent Robert and of François de Laplante, all brothers-in-law of the groom, of William Bodin, cousin, in lieu of father, of Jean Bapt. Galerneau cousin and of Marie Bernard aunt of the bride, and of several others, relatives and friends, who declared that they knew not how to sign, as well as the newly weds (Signe): P. Robetaille priest". Note:- The age of 58 given above must be in error, for it would indicate that Jean B. Gervais was born in 1752, or two years before his parents married in 1754. All our efforts to find his baptismal record failed. It is probable that 58 was written into this record of his 2nd marriage in 1810 when it should have been 48, which would mean that he was born in 1762. This is possible, for his brother Louis was born in 1761 and Pierre in 1763; or he might have been born in 1764 or 1765. The record of his first marriage proves that he was the son of Gabriel and his second wife, Marie Anne Amable Babeu, and not the offspring of Gabriel's first marriage.

CONTRACT OF MARRIAGE between ALEXIS ROY and ACATHA REMILLARD, by Lalanne, at Laprairie, Jan. 12, 1781.

"...present Alexis Roy, 24 years of age, son of Jean Alexis Roy and of the late Veronique St. Jean, his parents, of the first part; and Marie Acatha Remiard, aged 15 years, daughter of Joseph Remiard and of Clothilde Lapierre, her parents, of the 2nd part; all of the parish of St. Philippe. The said parties in the presence and with the assent of their relatives and friends from various parts, to wit, on the part of said Alexis Roy, Mr. Michael Monmany, Mrs. Magdeleine Forgue, Mr. Theodore Bechard, Joseph Lareau, Mr. Antoine Dutour, his friends, and on the part of Marie Acatha Remiard, Joseph Remiard her father, Messrs. Louis and Joseph Remiard her brothers, Miss Marg. Remiard her sister, Louis Bechard brother-in-law, Mr. Pierre Carillaux uncle, Mr. Constant Cartier and Mrs. Marian Brosseau, Mr. François Mouet and Mrs. Marie Joseph Surprenant her friends, Have voluntarily ... etc.....(at quite some length).

NOTE:- This much of the said contract is given here chiefly in regard to the ages of the parties to this marriage, and also to show the various names referring to Alexis Roy. Keep these in mind when reading the following documents.

CHURCH RECORD of the same couple's marriage, at St. Philippe, Jan. 15, 1781.

" The 15th of January 1781, after the publication of 3 banns of matrimony at our parochial Masses on Sundays or festivals consecutively between Jean Alexis Roy, son of Jean Alexis Roy and of the late Veronique St. Jean of the parish of St. Vallier, of the first part; and Marie Acatha Remiard daughter of Joseph Remiard and of Marie Clothilde Lapierre of this parish of the second part; no impediment to said marriage having been discovered, we Pastor of St. Francis Regis undersigned received their mutual consent and gave them the nuptial benediction according to the form prescribed by our mother Holy Church, and this in presence of Theodore Bechard, François Monet, Michel Momny, friends of the groom, of Joseph Remiard father, Louis Bechard brother-in-law, Constant Cartier friend of the bride, and of several others who, including the newly married couple, know not how to sign. J. Gamelin pastor of St. J. f. regis".

NOTE:- The groom in this document is Jean Alexis Roy, but in the contract he was simply Alexis Roy; the father is Jean Alexis in both. Tanquay calls the father Jean Baptist Roy, so we call him Jean Baptist Alexis, in view of these exhibits.

Tanquay calls the son Jean but not so his baptismal record, which we have copied from the records of St. Vallier as follows:
"Parish of St. Vallier, 1755. On the 19th of May 1755 I baptized Jean Baptist, son of Jean Baptist Le Roy and of Veronique Desfournaux. The godfather was René Louverdierre and the godmother Marianne Lemarie, wife of Alexis Le Roy who were unable to sign. Leclair priest".

Now, Alexis Le Roy, husband of Marianne Lemarie the godmother, is a brother of the child's Dad, Jean Baptist Roy, and the child's grand parents were Alexis Roy and Madeleine Leclerc. One has to have more than his wits about him in working out this line of Roys, for nearly every boy in 3 or more generations has Alexis or Jean Baptist or both in his name, and sometimes they are Le Roys instead of just plain Roys; but pay no attention to the LE.

as to

Another apparent difficulty arises/this Jean Baptist Alexis Roy's mother's name, which is Veronique St. Jean in both his contract of marriage, and in the church record of it; but, in the baptismal record of her baby she is Veronique Desfourneaux. This is solved by Tanguay, who says in various places in his Dictionary, that St. Jean, Desfourneux, Delfourneux are nicknames for Novel, the first pioneer of the line being SIR JEAN FRANÇOIS NOUEL, son of Sir Jean François Nouel-Delfourneau (Royal Notary) and of Louise Mellecent, of Le Mans (Maine), now Sarthe, France. Moreover, Veronique's mother was also Veronique.

So much about the first marriage of JEAN BAPTIST ALEXIS ROY and the research difficulties it involved. What about the discrepancies regarding his age? The contract for his first marriage, in January 1781, says he was 24 years old; this means that he was born in 1757. The church record says nothing about his age. His burial record in 1818 at L'Acadie says that he was then 69 years of age, which makes the year of his birth 1749 -- an error of about 8 years right off. His baptismal record, dated May 19, 1755, mentions nothing of the day of his birth, which usually is the same day or a day or two sooner. We chose this date rather than either of the other two. Here is a copy of his burial certificate:

"Burial of ALEXIS ROY, at L'Acadie, -- The 26th of May 1818, by us priest Pastor undersigned, was buried in the cemetery of this parish, the body of Alexis Roy, aged 69 years, who died suddenly day before yesterday (24th), husband of Marie Anne Dupille, and farmer. Present Jacques Marceau and Michel Tremblay, who declared inability to sign. J.B. Paquien priest".

SECOND MARRIAGE, L'Acadie, 1790. "July 11, 1790, after the publication of 3 banns of matrimony at our parochial Mass on a holyday and two consecutive Sundays, between Alexis Roy, widower of Agatha Remillard, of this parish, of the 1st part; and Marie Anne Dupille, daughter of Michel Dupille and of Marie Louise Leclair, of this parish, of the 2nd part; no impediment to said marriage having been discovered, we undersigned received their mutual consent and gave them the nuptial blessing according to the form prescribed by our mother the Holy Roman Church, and this in presence of Jean Baptist Calle, friend, Jean Marie Remillard brother-in-law of the groom, of Michel Dupille father, Michel Dupille brother, François Letourneau friend, M. Marguerite Meumeny, friend of the bride, who declared with the newly-weds their inability to sign. Lancto priest".

BURIAL OF AGATHA REMILLARD. L'Acadie, 1789. "November 17, 1789, by us priest undersigned was buried in the cemetery of this parish Agatha Remillard, wife of Alexis Roi, deceased last night, at the age of about 24 years, fortified by the sacraments of penance and Extreme Unction. Present: Jean Baptist Calle, Flavien Dupuy and several others. Lancto priest".

9. JEREMIAH, b. Chas. J., 30 July 1833, Napierville 30 Jul. 1833 Napierville, P.Q. (Burial record not found) at an early age, Canada.

Bartholomes Gervais never remarried. With his two sons, Mose and Isaac, he left Henryville, P.Q., in the spring of 1855 for Chicago, Ill., via. the Great Lakes, bringing their chatels with them. A storm on Lake Erie lasted 3 days & nights, causing the old gentleman much difficulty and fatigue, caring for his horses and cattle. Promising him to look after them, his sons finally persuaded him to get some sleep. In his slumber, he had a nightmare, walked up to the deck, and was washed overboard. Having recovered his body, the story goes, the boys buried it somewhere on the Ohio shore of Lake Erie. at some port that none of the relatives seem to remember.

BAPTISM OF OLIVE ROY. "Church of St. Marguerite of Scotland, L'Acadie, P.Q. Born Jan. 29, 1804 at L'Acadie, P.Q., twin sister of Josette, baptized on the same day, daughter of John Bapt. Alexis Roy & Marie Anne Dupille, farmers of this parish and legitimately married. Sponsors: Michel Lamarre & Marie Giroux, who with the father declared not knowing how to sign this record. (Signed): Lando priest".

BURIAL OF OLIVE ROY GERVAIS. St. Cyprian's Church, Napierville, P.Q. "The 26th of March 1835, we undersigned pastor buried Olive Roy wife of Bartholomew Gervais farmer, who died day before yesterday in this parish, at the age of about 31. Witnesses: Pierre Syre and George Renaudet who could not sign. N. L. Amiot".

BAPTISMS OF BARTHOLOMEW GERVAIS' CHILDREN

MOSE.-- Church of St. Marguerite of Scotland, L'Acadie, P.Q. "This third of February 1821, by us undersigned pastor, was baptized Mose, born this day, of the legitimate marriage of Bartholomew Gervais, farmer, and of Olive Roy. 2.

JULIENNE.-- Church of St. Marguerite of Scotland, L'Acadie. "The 26th of March 1822 we the undersigned priest baptized Julianne, born this day, of the legitimate union of Bartholomew Gervais, local farmer, and of Olive Roy. Sponsors: John Bapt. Reigné and Josette Chrobert, who with the father declared they could not sign. (Signed): B. B. Decoigne priest".

Note:-- The family lived closer to Napierville than to L'Acadie, but the latter parish was the only one they could attend till a new parish was carved out of it at Napierville about 1823, under the name of St. Cyprian of Lery.

DAVID.-- Church of St. Cyprian, Napierville, P.Q. "The 29th of September 1823, we the undersigned pastor baptized David, born this day of the legitimate marriage of Bartholomew Gervais farmer and of Olive Roy. Sponsors: David Leblanc and Judith Lechene, who with the father declared their inability to sign. (Signed): J. B. Paquien, priest".

His Burial.-- "The 12th of November 1824, we undersigned priest buried in the cemetery of L'Acadie the body of David, who died day before yesterday at the age of one year and one month, son of Bartholomew Gervais and of Olive Roy of this parish. Present: John B. Dubé and John B. Dubé, his son, who declared they could not sign. Jos. Belisle."

DAVID II.-- Church of St. Cyprian, Napierville. "The tenth of August 1825, we undersigned priest baptized David born yesterday of the legitimate marriage of Bartholomew Gervais farmer and of Olive Roy of this parish. Sponsors: Antonio Belanger and Josette Chéru, who with the father declared they could not sign. (Signed): A. Brais priest".

5.

ALEXANDER.-- Church of St. Cyprian, Napierville. "The 23rd of November 1826, we the undersigned priest baptized Alexander born the previous day of the legitimate marriage of Bartholomew Gervais farmer and of Olive Roy of this parish. J.E. Morisset priest."

6.

ISAAC.-- Church of St. Cyprian, Napierville. "The 13 of April 1828 we undersigned pastor baptized Isaac born the same day of the legitimate marriage of Bartholomew Gervais farmer and of Olive Roy of this parish. 7.

CESARIE.-- Church of St. Cyprian, Napierville. "The 18th of April 1830 we undersigned priest baptized Césarie born the same day of the legitimate marriage of Bartholomew Gervais farmer and of Olive Roy of this parish. Sponsors: Louis Bélanger and Rebecca Hébert who could not sign. (Signed): J.E. Morisset priest".

SOLOMON.-- Church of St. Cyprian, Napierville. "The 6th of October 1831 we undersigned Pastor baptized Solomon born the day preceding of the legitimate marriage of Bartholomew Gervais farmer and of Olive Roy of this parish. Sponsors: Julien Remillard and Genevieve Grégoire who could not sign. (Signed): J.E. Morisset priest".

9.

JEREMIAH. -- Church of St. Cyprian, Napierville. "The 30th of July 1833. by the undersigned priest was baptized Charles Jeremiah born this morning of the legitimate marriage of Bartholomew Gervais farmer of this parish and of Olive Roy. Sponsors: Francis Trépanier and Marie Sire who with the father declared they could not sign. (Signed): Deserve, priest".

Note:-- As you must have noticed in reading the above certificates, it was quite the practice to give old-testament names to Canadian children -- Hebrew names chiefly -- like Moses, Rebecca, David, Isaac, and Solomon -- which is not so common in Canada now.

BARTHOLOMEW GERVAIS' CERTIFICATE OF MARRIAGE

Parish of St. Marguerite of Scotland, L'Acadie, Province of Quebec, Canada. "The 17th of April 1820, after the publication of three banns of marriage at our parochial Masses for three consecutive Sundays, between Bartholomew Gervais, farmer, living in this parish, major son of John Baptist Gervais and of the late Josette Dupuis, his parents of the parish of St. Philippe, of the first part; and Olive Roy, minor daughter of the late Alexis Roy, a farmer, and of Marie Anne Dupile, her parents of this parish, of the second part; no impediment to said marriage having been found, we undersigned priest received their mutual consent, after having received that of their parents, and gave them the nuptial blessing, according to the rites prescribed by our holy mother the Church, in the presence of John Baptist Gervais, father of the groom; Francis Gervais, his brother; Francis Brisson, his friend; André Roy, brother of the bride in lieu of father; Joseph Roy, her brother; Louis Poisson, a friend; who as well as the groom and the bride declared they knew not how to sign. (Signed): J. B. Paquien priest".

Deslauriers father, and Flavien Fecteau friend of the bride, who with the parties did not know how to sign. (Signed): T. St. Aubin, priest".

MARRIAGE OF CESARIE GERVAIS & PHILIP LECOMTE.-- not yet found. They may have been married in Canada before 1855, or after this date in Illinois. I have been informed that they lived mostly in Manteno, Illinois.

SOME OBSERVATIONS

I have often wondered what became of Grandpa Mose Gervais' brothers, David and Alexander and their families, and even sought information on the subject; but my efforts so far have proved fruitless. However, time and opportunity may yet bring results in the future. Both these great-uncles of ours married, as you have noted from the preceding marriage records, at Napierville, and remained there for some years. David had two children who were born there: Marie Hermine, Feb. 12, 1847, and baptized on the 14th, her paternal grandparents as sponsors; Marie Vitalia, on an unrecorded date in 1855, and also baptized there, no sponsors being mentioned. Alexander became the father of three children who were born there: Joseph, May 15, 1850, baptized the same day, with Ubalde Leblanc & Rachel Larrault as sponsors; Joseph Treflé, on Nov. 5, 1853, Joseph Larrau & Rose of Lima Leblanc, as sponsors; Marie Alphonsine, born in 1858, and baptized there, though the full record was not found. Both these families must have moved elsewhere in Canada, or the U.S. I have a hunch that they settled in northern New York State somewhere. Perhaps some reader of this clan book may be able to give some clue on the subject.

Grandpa Mose Gervais and his brother Isaac are said to have lived for 5 years at Alburg, Vermont, in Grand Isle Co., not far from the Canadian border, where two children by his first wife, Laura Végiard Labonté, were born: Laura, Oct. 19, 1851, baptized at Henryville, Iberville Co., Canada; William Gervais, Nov. 8, 1855, his record of baptism not found. The following March, they moved to Kankakee Co., ILL. Not too long afterward, each of the brothers took a claim of Gov't land in the next county south, Iroquois Co. Isaac's claim was 1½ mi. north of a little village called L'Erable, on which he lived until his death, Dec. 1, 1908. As his 1st wife, Laura, had died in 1858, at L'Erable, Ill., he married Marie Merence Durand, widow of Francis Xavier Coulombe and daughter of Peter Durand & Louise Joyal, by whom he had two daughters: Georgianna, born July 22, 1871, baptized Aug. 20, 1871, at L'Erable; and Edwardanna, born there also, Aug. 1885, and baptized the next day. The records of the Church in L'Erable are preserved in the Church presbytery at Ashkum, Illinois, the neighboring parish. BIG ISAAC, as his relatives called him, to distinguish him from Grandpa's son of the same name, who was known as LITTLE ISAAC, living in Kankakee Co., at Momence.

Grandpa Mose's Gov't claim in Iroquois Co. was lost by the swindle perpetrated by a man from whom he had bought some cattle to fatten and sell, so that he could pay off the price of the land with the proceeds. The cattle turned out to have been previously mortgaged, and he lost the claim in consequence. He moved back to Kankakee Co. and rented a farm in the vicinity of St. George for years. Then, two of his sons, Arthur and Eusebius, moved to Kansas, near Humboldt, Kansas, where their half-brother, Joseph Cleophas, had located in 1878 or 1879. This was in the early 1880's, and Grandpa later followed them. In the 1890's, he returned to St. George, Ill., and so did both his boys. His wife died there in 1898, and our Dad went to fetch him to live with him in Minnesota, as he had turned blind in the early 1900's. He died at Ghent, Minn., at the age of 87 and lies buried there, in the parish cemetery of St. Eloi's Catholic Church. There seems to have been no plat of the cemetery at that time, and when the cemetery was enlarged, the marker on his grave seems to have disappeared; hence, it is impossible to locate his grave.

Julienne Gervais, Grandfather's sister who married Pierre Peck, died at the early age of 24, due it is said to his cruel treatment of her. So far as I could find, no children were born to their union.

The first wives of Grandpa Mose and his brother Isaac were sisters: Marie Végiard called Labonté and Laura Végiard-Labonte, daughters of Jerome & Marie Félicité Meunier. In the records the family name is spelled sometimes one way or the other, or simply Végiart or Végiard, or merely Labonté, and in the U.S., LaBounty. I was never able to find the marriage record of Jerome, as he may have been married in France before coming to Canada or New York State, where he is said to have been mail carrier for some years, from Albany to Champlain.

 MARRIAGES OF MOSE GERVAIS, Sr. -- His first Marriage Record was not found, though intensive search was made. However, all the baptismal records of his children indicate plainly that the union was truly legitimate and Catholic. That the couple were wed in 1838, when he was only 17, and his wife 21, is also quite evident. The bride's parish may have been in northern New York of Vermont (which is indicated by Labonte relatives in Illinois), and hence the wedding may have occurred somewhere in either of said States. Uncle Arthur Gervais told me that Grandpa and his brother Isaac farmed in Grand Isle Co., Vermont, for some 5 years; but all of Grandpa's 8 children by his first union were baptized in Napierville and Henryville, Canada, both places being only a few miles north of the U.S. border.

SECOND MARRIAGE OF MOSE GERVAIS.-- (English version of the original French, copied from the register of St. George Catholic Church, Henryville, Iberville Co., P.Q.) "This 28th of November 1854, after the publication of one of the banns of matrimony, at our parochial Mass, under date of the 21st instant, between Mose Gervais of this parish, widower of the late Marie Vegiard, of the first part; and Rebecca Surprenant also of this parish, widow of the late Francis Demers, of the second part; no impediment to said marriage having been discovered, we the undersigned pastor, received their mutual consent in presence of Bartholomew Gervais, father, and Lambert Morin, friend of the groom, and of James Surprenant, father, and Flavien Pecteau friend of the bride, all of whom declared they knew not how to sign. (Signed): T. St. Aubin, priest".

REBECCA SURPRENANT'S FIRST MARRIAGE. -- (Translation from the register of St.George Church, Henryville, P.Q.). "June 24, 1851, after the usual publication of the marriage banns at our parish Masses, between Francis Demers from Illinois, major son of the late Alexis Demers and of Josette Bessette of this parish, of the first part; and Rebecca Surprenant resident of this parish, major daughter of James Surprenant and of Elizabeth Granger, of the second part; no impediment having been discovered, and with the consent of the parents, we undersigned pastor received their mutual consent and gave them the nuptial blessing in presence of Louis Alexis Demers, taking the place of father, and of Edward René Demers Ev.1 (sic), uncle of the groom, and of James Surprenant father, and Prudent Mesnard, Eusebius Surprenant, friend and brother respectively of the bride, who, as well as the bride, did not know how to sign. (Signed): François Demers A.L.Demers Jacques Surprenant Hermine Demers Marlie Brosseau Gédéon Demers T. St.-Aubin priest".

MARIE JOSEPHINE DEMERS.-- In July 1852, this daughter was born to the union mentioned above, and the register of Henryville, P.Q. record the following burial: "May 20, 1853, we the undersigned, buried the remains of Marie Josephine who died day before yesterday at the age of ten months, the child of the late Francis Demers and of Marie Rebeccs Surprenant of this parish. Present: Fabian Dandurant and Flavian Pecteau, who did not know how to sign. (Signed): T. St.-Aubin, priest".

Note that the father had died before his child. His burial record was not found at Henryville, and so it is presumed that he died and was buried elsewhere.

BAPTISMAL CERTIFICATES OF MOSE GERVAIS' CHILDREN

PHILOMENE. -- "Church of St. Cyprien de Lery, Napierville, P.Q. Canada, for 1839, Folio 251, Baptism 53. The 3rd of April 1839, we the undersigned pastor, baptized Philomene, born yesterday, of the legitimate marriage of Mose Gervais, laborer, and of Marie Végiard called Labonté, of this parish. Sponsors: Francis Gervais and Rose Paradis, who could not sign. The father was not present. (Signed): H.L. Amiot priest".

Her Burial, from the same records, 1839, F. 267, Sepulture 63. "The 19th of April 1839, we the undersigned pastor, buried Philomene, daughter of Mose Gervais, laborer, and of Marie Végiard, deceased yesterday in this parish, at the age of 16 days. Witnesses: Pierre Syre and Edward Hébert. (Signed): H.L. Amiot".

The 6th of July 1844, I priest undersigned, baptized Mose, born yesterday of the legitimate union of Mose Gervais, laborer, of this parish, and of Marie Végiard. Sponsors: Bartholomew Gervais and Genevieve Grégoire, who could not sign. (Signed): A. Morin priest".

5.

ISAAC. -- Church of St. Cyprien, Napierville, 1846, F 26, B 158, copied from records preserved in the City Hall, St. Jean, P.Q. "This day, Aug. 14, 1846, by the undersigned priest, was baptized Isaac, born today of the legitimate marriage of Mose Gervais, laborer, of this parish, and of Marie Végiard. Sponsors: Julian Remillard and Aurélie Fradet, who could not sign. (Signed): A. Morin priest".

ISAIAH. -- "Henryville, P.Q., Church of St. George, 1849, F. 75, B 112. This 15th day of July 1849, we undersigned priest baptized Isaie Gervais, born yesterday of the legitimate union of Mose Gervais and of Marie Végiard of this parish. Sponsors: Isaie Gervais and Césarie Gervais, who could not sign. (Signed): I. Dallaire priest".

Note:-- Must have died young; yet no record of this was found.

EMERENCE. "Henryville, P.Q., Church of St. George, 1851, F 150, B 201. The 23rd of October 1851, we undersigned priest baptized Emérence, born yesterday of Mose Gervais and of Marie Végiart of this parish. Sponsors: Lambert Morin and Sophie Berthiaume, who as well as the father present, could not sign. (Signed): T. St. Aubin priest".

Her burial from the same church. "The 17th of February, 1855, we undersigned priest, buried the remains of Emerence who died day before yesterday, aged 3 years, the child of Mose Gervais and of late Marie Végiard. Present: Flavian Gecteau and Alexi Fecteau, who did not sign. (Signed): T. St. Aubin priest".

JOSEPH CLEOPHAS. Church of St. George, Henryville, P.Q., 1854, F225, B 59. "The 8th of April 1854, we undersigned priest, baptized Joseph Cleophas, born yesterday of the marriage of Mose Gervais and of Marie Végiard of this parish. Sponsors: Joseph Duquet and Marguerite Gregoire, who as well as the father present could not sign. (Signed): T. St. Aubin priest".

BURIAL OF MARIE VEGIARD GERVAIS

Henryville P.Q., Church of St. George, 1854, F 227, S 30. "The 17th of April 1854, we undersigned priest buried the remains of Marie Végiard, who died day before yesterday at the age of 38 years, the wife of Mose Gervais of this parish. Present: Flavian Fecteau and Joseph Duquet, who could not sign. (Signed): T. St. Aubin priest".

Note:-- Unable to find her baptismal record, I concluded from this burial record that she was born in 1816.

BAPTISMS OF THE CHILDREN BY MOSE'S 2ND WIFE

LUCIAN GERVAIS. Translation from the Latin of the register made in St. John's Church, L'Erable, Illinois, now preserved in the parish house of Assumption Church, Ashkum, Illinois, both in Iroquois County. "A.D. 1857 on the 11th day of October, I the undersigned baptized Lucian, born October 15, 1855, son of Mose Gervais and Rebecca Surprenant. Sponsors: Jerome Labonté and Florence Végiard. (Signed): C. Brisard priest".

LOUISE GERVAIS. "Church of the Maternity, Bourbonnais, Illinois. A.D. 1857, on the 17th of June, I baptized (Louise) Mary Josephine, born Jan. 25, 1857, the daughter of Mose Gervais and Rebecca Surprenant. Sponsors: John Baptist Lague and Zoé Surprenant. (Signed): Alex Mailloux priest." Note:-- The name, Louise, is not in the register, but this record is evidently hers.

3.

DOSITHEUS GERVAIS. No church record of his birth or baptism has been found. The only written evidence I could get is from the family register that our Mother kept at home. This says that he was baptized by Rev. Father Lapointe. The date of birth is given as July 7, 1859. Rev. Epiphanius Lapointe was pastor of St. George Church in Kankakee Co. and other missions in the county at that time; he had come from Canada in 1857. No births were registered either in those days, at the County Courthouse.

DENISE GERVAIS. Church of St. George, R.F.D. No. 2, Bourbonnais, Illinois. From the Church Register in French. "June 16, 1861, we the undersigned priest, baptized Denise Alphonsine, born on the 6th of the present month, of the legitimate union of Mose Gervais and Rebecca Surprenant. Sponsors: Pierre Bétourné & Denise Surprenant. (Signed): P. Paradis priest".

5.

EUSEBIUS GERVAIS. No record of his baptism was found at St. George, though his sister Mary says that he was baptized there in 1863, as he was born there, Dec. 29, 1862.

6.

ROSE GERVAIS. Translation from the French record preserved in the parish of St. George, Route 2, Bourbonnais, Illinois. "The fifth of March 1865, we the undersigned priest baptized Rosanna, born the 27th _____, of the legitimate marriage of Mose Gervais and Rebecca Surprenant. Sponsors: Jacob Lagesse and Aurélie Surprenant. (Signed) P. Paradis priest". The date of birth is incomplete, and the day given may even be incorrect; for her sister Mary told me that Rose was born Jan. 19, 1864.

7.

MARY GERVAIS. St. George Church, Route 2, Bourbonnais, Illinois. "The tenth of Dec. 1866, we baptized Marie, born the day previous, of the legitimate marriage of Mose Gervais and Rebecca Surprenant. Sponsors: Isaac Gervais and Marie Mathieu. (Signed) P. Paradis priest". Note:-- Aunt Mary claims that she was born Dec. 16, 1866. How to settle the question seems very difficult.

8.

ARTHUR GERVAIS. St. George Church, Route 2, Bourbonnais, Illinois. "The 9th of May 1869 we the undersigned baptized Arthur, born April 22, 1869, of the legitimate marriage of Mose Gervais and Rebecca Surprenant. Sponsors: Joseph Ouellet and Esther Ouellet. (Signed): P. Paradis priest".

BURIAL OF REBECCA SURPRENANT GERVAIS. An entry in the records of St. George Church, signed by Rev. F. Chouinard, C.S.V., states that Marie Rebecca Gervais died at the age of 69 and was buried on Dec. 24, 1898, in the parish cemetery.

BURIAL OF MOSE GERVAIS, SR. Extract from the records of the Church of St. Eloi, Ghent, Minnesota. "The 26 day of February 1908, Moses Gervais died in his 89th year and was buried in St. Eloi's Cemetery on February 28, 1908, at Ghent, Minn. (Signed) Henry Victor Van Walleghe".

Note:-- Grandfather Gervais' age as given above is exaggerated by two years, for he was born Feb. 3, 1821.

DECEASE

BAPTISM, DOSITHEUS EDWARD GERVAIS: -- No record of this baptism seems to exist anywhere. The pastor of St. George told me that a gap of ten or more years exists in the registers of the parish. However, our Mother had a family register that gives the date of birth as July 7, 1859, and that Father was baptized by Rev. F. Lapointe. No church is mentioned.

BAPTISM, OLIVINE ROY: -- Extract from the registers kept at the Parish of St. Jean, now the Cathedral of that diocese, in the Province of Quebec, Canada, dated Jan. 20, 1881, signed by Rev. Aubry, Pastor, and kept by Mother with other valuable papers. "This 25th of March, 1855, we the undersigned priest have baptized Marie Rosalie Olivine born this day of the legitimate marriage of Joseph Roy farmer and of Olive Laure (Lord) of this parish. Godfather, Raphael Moreau; godmother, Rosalie Roy who, as also the father, present, could not sign. (Signed): Rev. Aubry, priest". The sponsors were husband and wife, Rosalie Roy, the child's uncle and aunt. The Father's full name was Paul Joseph Roy.

MARRIAGE CERTIFICATE, D.E. Gervais & Olivine Roy: -- The following is a copy of the document preserved by our Mother, and which does not give the names of the parents of the parties to the marriage; hence it is worthless for tracing ancestry. Fortunately, I knew our grandparents and their names: "State of Illinois, County of Kankakee. This certifies that Dosithe Gervais of Momenca in the State of Illinois and Olivine Roy of St. George in the State of Illinois were at St. George Church in said County by me joined together in HOLY MATRIMONY on the 18th day of November in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and 79 in presence of (Philip) Joseph Roy and Denise Gervais. (Signed): I.C. Lesage, Priest".

Note:-- The name Philip was supplied by me, as it did not appear in the original. He was Mother's brother, who was always called Philip, but usually signed simply P.J. Roy. Denise Gervais was Father's sister.

I.

BAPTISM, EUGENE F. GERVAIS: -- Affidavit by his godmother and aunt, Mrs. Mary Jarvis. "State of Illinois, County of Kankakee. I, Mary Jarvis, being first duly sworn, depose and say, that I am 70 years of age; that I was born and raised in the Town of Momenca, Illinois, and that I have lived there most of my life.

"That Dosithe E. Gervais was my brother and that his wife's name was Olivine Gervais; that Eugene Gervais was a son of Dosithe E. Gervais and Olivine Gervais, and that Eugene Gervais was born in the Town of Momenca, Illinois, on January 12th, 1881, and baptized on January 16th, 1881, by Reverend Father Letellier, at Momenca, Illinois; that the sponsors at the baptism of said Eugene Gervais were Frank Roy and this affiant.

"That said Eugene Gervais is now a member of the Congregation of Holy Cross of Notre Dame, Indiana, and is designated in said order as Brother Bernard. Further this affiant saith not. (Signed): MARY JARVIS.

"Subscribed and sworn to before me this 5th day of, A.D. 1937. (Signed and sealed by) VARNAM A. PARISH, N.P."

Note:-- This affidavit was necessary for several reasons: (1) The registers of St. George; (2) the registers of St. George of this baptism, because it was at that time a mission of the country parish of St. George; made by the Pastor, Rev. J.M. Lareau, June 5, 1937, which reads as follows: "St. George Church, R.F.D. 2, Bourvonnais, Illinois. "Joseph Francis born Jan. 12 of Docité Gervais & Olivine Roy was Baptized in this church Jan. 16, 1881, by J. C. Lesage. Sponsors -- François Roy & Marie Gervais". Fortunately, both my sponsors were still living, and I was able to resolve the discrepancies between this extract and my affidavit. My full name at baptism was JOSEPH FRANCIS EUGENE, and I had always been called Eugene simply; Father Letellier baptized me on Sunday, Jan. 16th, for the men of St. Patrick's parish mission used to get him by handcar for Sunday Mass than they could have brought Father Lesage, the real pastor, from St. George, which is about the same distance out in the country from Momenca as is St. Anne on the C. & E. I. railroad, where Father Letellier was pastor. Joseph was given me in honor of Grandpa Roy, Francis in honor of my godfather, and EUGENE in my own right. Father Lesage said he baptized me, probably because he was nominally the pastor of the mission of St. George, whose pastor he actually was.

All this shows how important it is for pastors and parents to see that the records be made exact. I was obliged to use my affidavit in 1937 to get a passport to Europe, as my baptismal certificate was so inexact.

BAPTISM, JOSEPHINE GERVAIS. "Church of SS. Peter & Paul, Goodland, Indiana. This is to certify that Mary Olivia Josephine Gervais, Child of Docedo Gervais and Mary Olivine Roi, Born March 26, 1882, was Baptized March 29, 1882, ACCORDING TO THE RITE OF THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH, by the Rev. John Hoss, the Sponsors being Joseph Roi and Mary Olivine Lord, as appears from the Baptismal Register of this Church. Date, October 22, 1941. (Signed): Rev. A. A. Kohne, Pastor".

BAPTISM, LAURA ROSE GERVAIS. "Church of SS. Peter & Paul, Goodland, Indiana. This is to Certify That Rose L. Gervais, Child of Docedo Gervais and Olivine Roi, born August 17, 1883, was Baptized August 19, 1883, ACCORDING TO THE RITE OF THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH, by the Rev. John Hoss, the Sponsors being Philip Roi and Rose Casse, as appears from the Baptismal Register of this Church. Dated, October 22, 1941. (Signed): Rev. A. A. Kohne, Pastor". (She was always called Laura)

NOTE: -- Though the two baptisms above mentioned came from Goodland, Indiana, where the records are now preserved, they were actually performed in the country church of St. Anthony, commonly known at that time as Dehner's Church, which later burned and was never replaced. Also, note the errors in spelling some of the names. (Caisse).

BAPTISM, ROY GERVAIS. Extract of the register at Fowler, Indiana, by Brother Bernard, C.S.C. "A.D. 1885. On the 15th day of February I baptized Cyril Joseph Roy Gervais who was born Feb. 9th, of Dosithée Gervais and Olyve Gervais. Sponsors: John Geis and Azelie Roy. (Signed): C. Maujay". Note: Father's name is here correctly spelled in French; but see what Father Maujay did to Mother's; it should be Olivine Roy.

5.

BAPTISM, MAY GERVAIS. "Baptismal Certificate. Church of Immaculate Heart of Mary, Currie, Currie, Minn. The Records of this Church certify, under date of Aug. 22, 1886, in the Baptism of Mary Elma Gervais, born Aug. 15, 1886, of Dosithe Gervais and Olivine Roy. Said Record is signed by Rev. Timothy J. Healy, with sponsors, Alfred Caron and Josephine Caron. Date, Jan. 12, 1942. (Signed): R. E. Jennings, Pastor".

Note:-- Father Healy misspelled Alma. She was commonly called May.

EMILE'S BAPTISM. "Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, Currie, Minnesota. This is to certify that Joseph Emile Gervais, son of Dosethius Gervais and Olivine Roy, born on the 28th day of February 1888 at Currie, Minnesota, was baptized on the 4th day of March 1888 according to the Rite of the Roman Catholic Church, by Rev. Patrick M. McTeague, the sponsors being Joseph Commeree and wife Olive. Date, April 9, 1934. (Signed): Rev. R. E. Jennings, Pastor."

Note:-- Though baptized Joseph Emile, he was always called Emile, and has always signed his name Emile J. Gervais. Father's name in English is correctly spelled -- Dositheus.

BAPTISM, ROSE GERVAIS. Certificate of Baptism issued by Rev. R.E. Jennings, Pastor, Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, Currie, Minn., Apr. 9, 1934. "This is to certify that Rose Anna Gervais, daughter of Dosith Gervais and Olivine Roy, born on the 26th day of Dec. 1889, City of Currie, State of Minnesota, was baptized on the 8th of Jan. 1890, according to the Rite of the Roman Catholic Church in Immaculate Heart of Mary Church at Currie. Sponsors: Edward Roy and Mary Commeree. (Signed): Patrick J. McTeague

8.

BAPTISM, ARTHUR GERVAIS. "Baptismal Certificate, Church of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. The Records of this Church certify, under date of (June 28) 1891, to the Baptism of Arthur Gervais, born (June 28) 1891, of Dosithe Gervais and Olivine Roy. Said record is signed by Rev. Joseph Mesny, with sponsors, Arthur Blanchet and Mary Fitzgerald. (Signed): R.E. Jennings, Pastor. Date, Jan. 12, 1942". Sponsors were husband & wife.

Note:-- The dates in parenthesis had to be supplied from Mother's family register.

BAPTISM, PHILIP GERVAIS. "Certificate of Baptism. This is to certify that Philip Joseph Gervais, son of Dosith Gervais and Olivine Roy, born on the 23 day of Sept. 1892, at Currie, Minnesota, was baptized on the 24th day of Sept. 1892, according to the Rite of the Roman Catholic Church, in the Immaculate Heart of Mary Church at Currie, Minn. Sponsors: Fred Caron and Corine Mailloux. (Signed): Rev. Joseph Mesny, as appears from the Baptismal Register of this Church. Issued by Rev. R.E. Jennings, April 9, 1934".

Note:-- Mother's register gives his middle name as Frederick.

BAPTISM. LOUISE AGNES GERVAIS. Note:-- The only record found of this baptism is our Mother's notation in the family register, which we quote as follows: "Louise Agnes Gervais, born Aug. 28, 1894, Currie, Minn., baptized by Father Condron, Sept. 10, 1894".

BAPTISM of HELEN GERVAIS. "This is to certify that Anna Helen Gervais, daughter of Dosite Gervais and Olivine Roy, born on the 16th day of July, 1896, at Currie, Minnesota, was baptized on the 26th day of July 1896, according to the Rite of the Roman Catholic Church in Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, Currie. Sponsors: Emil Paradis and Matilda Paradis. Rev. G.P.Murphy".

BAPTISM. JOHN ALEXIS GERVAIS. "Certificate of Baptism, Church of Immaculate Heart of Mary, Currie, Minnesota. The records of this Church certify, under date of Feb. 15, 1899, to the Baptism of John Alexis Gervais, born Feb. 3, 1899, of Dosite Gervais and Olivine Roy. Said record is signed by Rev. G.P.Murphy, with sponsors, John Roy and Laura Gervais. Rev. R.E.Jennings, Pastor, Jan. 12, 1942".

BAPTISM. VINCENT GERVAIS. "This is to Certify, that Vincent Ambrose Gervais, son of Dositheus Gervais and Olivine Roy, born on the 7 day of Dec. 1900, City of Currie, State of Minnesota, was baptized on the 9 day of Dec. 1900, according to the Rite of the Roman Catholic Church, in Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, at Currie. Sponsors: Joseph Lenoue and Mary Gervais, by Rev. G.P.Murphy, Pastor, as appears from the Baptismal Register of this Church, issued by Rev. R.E.Jennings. Date: April 9, 1934".

The matrimonial data, as well as the burial, were checked from various sources but not copied.

Now the members of our family who have married and had children of their own may make his or her family register, in whatever form is preferred, and begin a new book, called "DESCENDANTS OF D. E. GERVAIS AND OLIVINE ROY". A loose-leaf cover would do very nicely; the perforated sheets of paper used for the purpose could then be easily inserted and removed at will for further entries, and thus our Gervais line can be continued down the decades and centuries to come, by each generation now existing, or to come in the future. In fact, each member of our family having issue or not could keep a clan book containing the family registers of his brothers and sisters, in this book of descendants, and call the collection Chapter I. The data of their children's families would form the contents of Chapter II; of their grandchildren, Chapter III, etc.

CHAPTER I.

Generation VIII, Couple 1

CHARLES LE ROY & JEANNE BOYER

Parents of PIERRE ROY(VII, 1)

These parents of the pioneer of Mother's line in Canada were born, married, and buried in France. There is no evidence that they ever left their parish of St. Michel-le-Clou, a farming district in the southeastern part of what is now the Department of Vendee and the Diocese of Luçon. In 1937, while on my way from Nantes to Lourdes, I stopped at the County Seat of Vendee, La Roche-sur-Yon, to see what old documents might be preserved in the Court House there concerning our Roys of the mid-1600's. The clerk brought me out an armful, all he had, he said, of the region of St. Michel-le-Clou, not one of which went back further than about 1793. This I had suspected. So I thanked him and took a train for Fontenay-le Comte, the nearest station to St. Michel, about 3 miles out. A cab took me to the parish house, where I introduced myself to the Pastor and had quite a chat on my subject. The parish records went no further back than did the civil papers already consulted. There were Roys in the parish, certainly; but he assured me that none of them knew very much about their ancestors, at least not so far back. After I had expressed my gratitude for these bits of information, I asked him to kindly call a cab to take me back to the station. Without too much delay, I got my train and continued my journey as far as Bordeaux, where I stopped at a hotel for a well earned rest against the next day's grind to Lourdes, thoroughly satisfied to confine my research to Canada, where I knew the records go back to 1600.

MARRIAGE OF PIERRE ROY. Notre Dame Parish, Montreal. "The 12th day of January 1672, there was solemnized in this church the marriage of Mr. Pierre le Roy residing in the parish of Laprairie de la Madeleine, the son of Charles le Roy and Jeanne Boyer, his father and mother of the parish of St. Michel-le-Clou in Poitou, Diocese of La Rochelle, with Catherine Ducharme, daughter of Mr. Jean Ducharme cabinet maker in Paris and of Anne Lelievre. The three banns having been previously published without opposition, said marriage took place in the presence of Mr. Carion, Fiacre Ducharme master wood worker, Nicholas Boyer, and several others who signed according to law. M. Carion Pier Caillé Le Merle de hauprony Pierre Peras T. Rebuttel G. Perot, Pastor".

NOTE:-- This Canadian marriage record from the original French gives us just about all the data available about his parents and those of his wife. Le Roy, meaning the king in English, gradually became simply Roy, in France as elsewhere. Prior to the French Revolution of 1793 and when Pierre Roy was married, his native parish was in the old Province of Poitou and in the Diocese of La Rochelle; in fact, it was in the Diocese of La Rochelle from 1648 to 1821. The city of La Rochelle was then the capital of Aunis (pronounced O-nees), which was the smallest of the French Provinces, and it was probably the seaport from which Pierre sailed for Canada, not long before 1666. But he was born in Poitou, not in Aunis, as historians have mistakenly stated. He was not an Aunesian, but a poitvin. It is said that he came as a French soldier, Carion Reimond

Maternal Side

JEAN DUCHARME & JEANNE BOYER

Parents of CATHERINE DUCHARME(VII,1)

The marriage record above explains all that we positively know about this couple. Catherine was baptized in the Church of St. Benoit, Paris, probably the parish of her parents, in 1647. She is said later to have been what was called at the time a daughter of the king, that is a good poor girl, raised in France, in an institution subsidized by the king, and then sent to Canada, there to wed some deserving colonist. It is very possible that her parents had long since gone to their reward. Fiacre Ducharme, the 2nd signer of her marriage record, was also from Paris, the son of Toussaint, perhaps her uncle, who had married in Montreal, Jan. 13, 1659, and followed the same trade as her Dad. Nicholas Boyer, also present at her wedding, who had married in Montreal, Aug. 18, 1667, may be related on her mother's side; but he had come from Cogné, a town in the diocese of La Rochelle.

PIERRE JOUSSELOT & OZANNE DRAPEAU
Parents of MARIE JOUSSELOT(VII, 2)

Generation VIII, Couple 2

Quoting again from Marie Joussselot's marriage record with René Gervais, she was "...the daughter of Pierre Joussselot and of the late Ozanne Drapeau, of the parish of Langeon, Diocese of La Rochelle". Thus, we know that the mother was dead at the time of this wedding in 1669. We find elsewhere that Marie had three sisters who came to Quebec and married there.

NOTE:--

Tanguay's Dictionnaire of Canadian Families furnished us most of the data given above. The year of Jeanne's birth and baptism is an approximation that we made ourselves. We had no time to verify any of the dictionary data against existing records on file in Quebec archives, except for records relating to René Gervais and his family, copies of which are given with his family register, in Generation VII, Couple 1.

This Dictionnaire, published in the 1870's, has been out of print for decades. It consists of seven large volumes in the French language, by the Abbé Cyprien Tanguay, based chiefly on the Catholic Church records in Canada; but Vol. VII did not appear till 1890. The work contains many errors, but without it, I could never have done nearly so much in tracing our origins to France. It wasn't till after attending the funeral of our Brother André, C.S.C., Jan. 12, 1937, in Montreal, that I was able to find a second-hand set, to continue what I had done by correspondence for the first five generations.

Paternal Side

ROBERT LEFEBVRE & JEANNE AUTIN

Generation VIII. Couple 3

Parents of PIERRE LEFEBVRE(VII,2)

ROBERT LEFEBVRE and his wife JEANNE AUTIN were both members of the parish of Holy Trinity, Bois-Guillaume, in Normandy.

The probability is that they were both born, married, and buried there, or at least in the Diocese of Rouen; for it was from there that their son Pierre, baptized in 1652, came to Montreal, and married at Laprairie, in 1673. (See Gen.VII, Fam.2)

NOTE:- Lefebvre, perhaps the most common name in Canada, means the smith or iron-worker, much like the word smith in English, and the proper name Smith is the most common family name in the English language.

Paternal Side

PIERRE GAGNÉ & MARGUERITE ROSE (married in 1639)

Gen. VIII, Couple 4

Parents of MARGUERITE GAGNE(VII,2)

PIERRE GAGNE, from Courcival, in the Diocese of Le Mans, and was buried May 18, 1656, at Quebec, Canada, where he had died of slow fever. Gabriel Drouin, genealogist, Montreal, says that Pierre was from St. Come-de-Vair, Province of Perche; but this not agree with the account of Tanguay, who gives May 1, 1656 as the date of of Pierre Gagne's burial.

MARGUERITE ROSEE, daughter of Jean Rosee & Catherine Barbier, born in 1615, in France. Her parents were from Jossé, Diocese of Le Mans, then in the old Province of Maine, now in the Department of Sarthe. After the death of her 1st husband, she married William Etienne, June 17, 1657, in Montreal, the son of Louis Etienne & Jeanne Auzon, of Rouen, Normandy. There was no issue to this marriage, and she died sometime after the year 1681.--Drouin.

Their Children (according to Tanguay)

1. LOUIS, b. in 1639, called Bellavance, married on Oct. 4, in 1673, at St. Anne, P.Q., to 24 June 1698 Q_uebec
LOUISE PICARD, d. of John & Marie Caron, who was baptized 29 Sept. 1659, in Quebec. Issue: 4 boys, 6 girls.

She married William Lemieux, widower of Eliz.Langlois, Oct. 12, 1699, at Cap St.Ienace: 1 boy, 2 girls. She was buried at St.Valier, P.Q., March 8, 1717, and William, at Berthier, Oct. 15, 1725.--Tanguay.

* 2. MARGUERITE, b. 14 Sept. 1653, in Quebec, P.Q.; married in Quebec, Jan. 10, 1667, at the age of 13 yrs., 9 mos., to

(1) MARTIAL SAUTON, son of Martial & Thiphen Musar, from Algèr, Angoumains, France; died after 2 boys had been born.

(2) PIERRE LEFEBVRE, Robt. & Jeanne Autin; born in France in 1652; m. 4 Sept. 1673, Laprairie, P.Q.; buried 5 Apr. 1694, Laprairie. 6 boys & 4 girls were born of this union, and their mother died 26 Mar. 1726, at Laprairie.--(See Gen.VII, Family 2).

NOTE: - The parents of Marguerite Rosée, Jean Rosee & Catherine Barbier, should appear in the IXth Generation, or circle, of our Family Tree; the insertion of them was overlooked before the chart was printed. b means baptized; d, daughter.

NOTE:-- It seems that the father of this family came to Acadia with the expedition of Razilly in 1632, at the age of 26.

It seems rather strange that there should be two Pierres, two Jeans, in this family register. Nevertheless, Placide Gaudet must have found them so, for we have taken them as found in his notes as printed in the Ottawa Report of 1905.

The two Pierres got the nicknames of Esturgeon and Loup Marin from the places where they settled on the banks of the Port Royal River, above the town of Port Royal.

Placide Gaudet, the distinguished Acadian genealogist and Representative at Ottawa, has probably done more than anyone else to re-establish the lineage of his countrymen. The banishment of the Acadians by the British in 1755 was accompanied by the destruction of most of the church records, and it is thanks to Placide that we were able to gather the data we present herewith. Port Royal eventually became Annapolis Royal under British rule, but it had been settled by the French in 1604, a seaport off the Bay of Fundy. The names of practically all the other French settlements were also changed, and so it is extremely difficult to locate them at the present time.

If one had the time to consult census records of 1671, 1686, 1693, 1698, 1701, 1703, 1707, and 1714, perhaps corrections and additions could be made on the data that we have gathered for the Acadian families represented in this clan book. We never dreamed, at the outset of our researches, that we had so many in our lineage.

We call attention to No. 5 (MARIE COMEAU), for she is out of the chronological order, according to birth.

So far in Chapter I, we have dealt only with couples that appear in Generation VIII, but we shall have to take care of an occasional couple appearing in Generation IX, X, and XI. We have now come to the ancestors of Marguerite Bariau, who do not appear on our chart because, when it was printed, we were not satisfied that we had the right ones. Here again, we are dealing with the forebears of an exiled Acadian (Gen. V, 2). To simplify matters for the reader, we now give on the next page what is missing in Generations VI, VII, VIII, and IX.

Maternal Side

PIERRE MILLOUER & FRANÇOISE NAULET

Born, baptized, married, and buried probably in the Parish of St. Leger, at Charny, near Laval, in the old Province of Maine, now the capital of Mayenne. Their only child we know, JEAN MILLOUER, is the pioneer of the name in Canada (VIII, 18)

(See the family register given above). The name is pronounced: mee-loo-ey.

Generation IX, Couple 35

Maternal Side

PIERRE LE ROY & FRANÇOISE GODFROY

Parents of JEANNE LE ROY (VIII, 18)

Citizens of the city of Angers, only about 45 miles south of Laval and the local of the Millouers, their daughter Jeanne must have come to Quebec in the 1640's; for she married there in 1651, to her fellow countryman, Jean Millouer. Her parents probably never left their native heath, the city of Angers, through which we had the good fortune to see twice in 1948, while motoring with one of our good Holy Cross Fathers to visit our present Juniors, at Chiche in old Pottou, but now in the Department of Deux Sevres, which borders on the east Vendee. Angers was doubly interesting to us for the reason that our Novitiate in France, from about 1880 to 1903, was located there. In this latter year, the infamous Combar government expelled all teaching communities like ours, but allowed our superannuated members to live in the old Novitiate till God called them to their reward. The imposing property had been confiscated by the civil authorities, and Holy Cross never regained it.

Maternal Side

JEAN CREPEAU & SUZANNE FOUNOLEAU

Generation VIII, Couple 21

Parents of MAURICE CREPEAU(VII,11)

The contract of Marriage by Duquet, Quebec, Oct. 12, 1665, names this couple as the parents of Maurice Crepeau. They lived in that part of old Poitou, now Vendee, and never came to Canada. Susanne had died at the time of this contract.

* 1. MAURICE CREPEAU, (VII, 11), baptized 1639 Rogers, Poitou m. 1665 8 Sept. 1704 St. Pierre, I.O.

MARGUERITE LAVERDURE, Martin & Jacqueline Leliot; b. 1646 Paris, France 5 boys, 5 girls 22 Aug. 1727 " " "

NOTE:-- We quote the following from the contract of marriage mentioned above: "...between Maurice Crepeau, son of Jean and of the late Susanne Founoleau, his parents of the village of Rogers Pardeteau, diocese of Lu on, in Poitou, and Marguerite Laverdiere, daughter of Martin Laverdiere and of Jacline Leliot, of the parish of St.Nicolas des Champs, in Paris..."

Maternal Side

MARTIN LAVERDURE & JACLINE LELIOT

Generation VIII, Couple 22

Parents of MARGUERITE LAVERDURE(VII,11)

The contract just quoted above gives practically all we know of this couple. We have no evidence that they ever left Paris. Both were living at the time Marguerite, their daughter was married in Quebec to Maurice Crepeau, Oct. 12, 1665. How many other children they had does not seem to be of record.

Maternal Side

INNOCENT AUDET & VINCENTE REINE

Generation VIII, Couple 23

Parents of NICHOLAS AUDET (VII,12)

Extract from the marriage contract of Nicholas Audet, Quebec, 30 Aug. 1670, by Bequet: "...between Nicolas Audet, citizen of the Isle of Orleans, son of Innocent Odet and of the late Vincente Reine, his parents of the parish of St.Pierre of Nolle, Diocese of Poitiers, of the first part; and Magdeleine Despres, daughter of Fran ois Despres and of Magdelaine Legrand, her parents of the parish of St.Sauveur, city of Paris..." Note the variations in spelling, and that Nick's mother had died before the above date. His wedding took place Sept. 15, 1670, in the parish of Ste-Famille, isle of Orleans, Canada.

Maternal Side

FRAN OIS DESPRES & MAGDELEINE LEGRAND

Generation VIII, Couple 24

Parents of MAGDELEINE DESPRES (VII,12)

The extract just quoted gives all we know of this couple, who probably never came to Canada, though they were both living at the time the contract for the marriage of their daughter, Magdeleine, was drawn up in Quebec.

CHAPTER I.

Maternal Side

JACQUES HENAULT & MARIE

Parents of PIERRE HENAULT(VII,14)

Generation VIII, Couple 27

In St. Pierre Rectory, Sorel, P.Q., we found the register of 1688, folio 59, which gives the faded and half-torn record of Pierre Henault's marriage. What was legible follows: "The 3rd day of February 1688, after the publication of 3 banns between Pierre Eno, son of Jacques Enno and of Marie, of the first part; and Marie Ratel, daughter of Pierre Ratel and of Marie Lemaire, of the second part, of the parish and manor of Villmar..."

Too much attention must not be given to the spelling variations; for beside those underlined above, Tanguay gives Enaud, Hainault, Aineau, Hainaut, Hénaut, Hénau, Hénau, Hénau, and Hunault.

A Jacques Hunault, baptized in 1645, who was buried at Sorel, Dec. 2, 1690, probably the father of Pierre Henault, the maiden name of whose mother was torn out of the register.

Maternal Side

MICHEL RATEL & MARGUERITE GOSSET

Parents of PIERRE RATEL (VIII,28)

Generation IX, Couple 55

Apparently, this couple were of the parish of St. Herblanc, in the Diocese of Rouen, Normandy, France, and died there. Their son Pierre came to Canada and married in Montreal, as related above. We have no means of determining how many other children they may have had.

Maternal Side

JOSEPH LEMAIRE & ELIZABETH DUPRE

Parents of MARIE LEMAIRE(VIII,28)

Generation IX, Couple 56

The old Province of Berry, in the center of France, is where this couple lived and probably died, in the town of Romoratin, where their daughter MARIE LEMAIRE was born. Just when she emigrated to Canada, like so many other colonists of the same and earlier periods, we could not determine exactly; but she evidently found a husband in Pierre Ratel, in Montreal, and married him Dec. 28, 1669.

CHAPTER I.
BEGINNING of the LORD QUADRANT

Generations VIII, IX, & X

You will note at this point that there are no LORD ancestors appearing on our family chart for these 3 generations, because we were unable to the names that belong in these spaces. The correct spelling of the name seems to be LAURE. Like so many other Acadian exiles, most of whom were unable to speak any other language than French (and perhaps Breton), the descendants of Julien Laure (first pioneer of the line in Acadia) were scattered chiefly about the New England colonies, among the English Protestants who had settled there. The nearest spelling those Britishers could arrive at for LAURE was Lord, and so it is written in most of the documents pertaining to this line of Acadians banished to the American east coast. Even in Canada, where many of them later found homes, this tell-tale spelling appears in the records. Other variations found are LAUR, L'OR, or LOR.

The first couple belonging to this chapter in our chart is FRANÇOIS GIROUARD & ANNE AUCCOIN, the parents of ANNE GIROUARD, wife of Julien Lord (VII, 17), and the little we could find about them will be found on the next page.

Two other big gaps in the chart then appear on account of our inability to trace the ancestors of two Acadian couples and those of the French couple, Thomas Ligny & Gillette Michon, who had come from France in Generation VI.

On the next page, then, immediately after considering Francois Girouard & Anne Aucoin (Generation VIII, Couple 2), we give the family register of Nicholas Bouchard & Anne Le Roy (Gen. VIII, Couple 45).

3. ANNE HEBERT, born in France
JOSEPH MARIE ETIENNE JONQUET, Normandy

This marriage was the first celebrated in Canada, Rev. Father Joseph Le Carron officiating.--Sarnad, p. 41

Marie Rollet, the mother of this family, wed Guillaume Hubou, May 16, 1629, at Quebec.

Louis Hebert first came to America with Champlain in 1607, remaining with him in Acadia till 1609, when he returned to his family and his business as Apothecary in Paris. In 1617, he sold his business, after obtaining a concession of land to farm in New France, the first of its kind ever granted by the French Government. With his wife and children, he sailed to Quebec with his old friend, Champlain, and took possession of the land assigned to him, on the brow of the bluff, on which the City of Quebec now stands. He immediately set about clearing the timber to build a house for his family and to use the land to raise wheat for his bread, and other products as well. The fur traders and trappers wanted no farmers and they persecuted him till provisions from Europe could not be procured. Then they came to him to buy wheat, which he sold to them.

Champlain said: "Louis Hebert was the first colonist to provide a living for the family by farming". --Ferland, p. 276. Hebert's house was in the garden of what later became the Seminary of Quebec. In 1766, the foundation of it was discovered near the garden gate. It was the first house ever erected in the upper city, and must have stood between the streets St. Louis Famille and Couillard.--Ferland, Vol.I, p.190.

The colony met its real loss in the death of Louis Hebert, who, after Champlain, had done most to establish Quebec, and in the advancement of New France. A monument to his memory stands today between the Hotel Frontenac and Laval University. He died as the result of a fall and was buried in the cemetery of the Recollets, the grounds of which were later disturbed, and the cedar coffin containing his remains unearthed. In 1678, Father Valentin LeRoux, Superior of the Recollets, had the remains transferred to the basement of their church, in the upper city. --Leclerc, Vol.I, p.128.

Among his descendants, Hebert counts some of the most illustrious families of Canada: Joliet, DeLery, DeKrommoy, founded D'Eschambault, as well as Archbishop Taschereau of Quebec, Archbishop Blanchet of Oregon, and Bishop Taché of Three Rivers, and In Annapolis, in S.W. Nova Scotia, Hebert Park was named in his memory. Founded in 1604, it was Fort Royal in Hebert's day.

Parents of GUILLEMETTE HEBERT (X, 185)

Since this couple are the parents of William (Guillaume in French) Hebert, as we saw in Gen. XI, Couple 364, and of his sister Guillemette, there is no necessity of repeating here what was already been written about them.

Maternal Side

NICHOLAS DESPRES & MADELEINE LEBLANC

Generation X, Couple 186

Parents of GENEVIEVE DESPRES (IX, 93)

NICHOLAS DESPRES, a nobleman of France, was married there in 1625, and is known to have had 3 daughters by his wife, MADELEINE LEBLANC, also a native of France; but we doubt very much that these parents ever came to Canada.

Maternal Side

PAUL CHALIFOUR & MARIE GABOURI
Parents of PAUL CHALIFOUR (X, 192)

This couple lived in the town of Sparme, in the old Province of Aunis, Diocese of La Rochelle, France, and never followed their pioneer son Paul to Canada, where he truly lent a big hand to Champlain and Louis Hebert in establishing Quebec, the first permanent settlement in New France.

Maternal Side

JACQUES ARCHAMBAULT & FRANÇOISE CHAUVÉAU
Parents of JACQUETTE ARCHAMBAULT (X, 192)

This couple were of the town of Dompierre, ancient Province of Aunis. Their daughter Jacqueline found her way to New France sometime before she married Paul Chalifour II, in 1648, at Quebec. She must have had real courage.

NOTE:-- At this point in the VIIIth and outer generations in the family chart, or tree, we have to skip a gap that should contain the Acadian ancestors of François Lafaille & Marguerite Forest (Gen. V), and who were married while in exile in New England, Nov. 10, 1767. All our efforts to trace their forebears have failed.

Tanguay says that these people were of the Parish of St.Ermin, Diocese of Luçon, old Province of Picardie. The year of birth of their son Marc is not given, but must have been considerably over 20 when he married in 1668, at Quebec.

Maternal Side

JEAN LE DOUX & JEANNE HIOUT

Generation IX, Couple 118

Parents of JACQUELINE(VIII,59)

Whether this couple ever came to Canada is doubtful, but it seems certain that were citizens of a town by the name of Esnande, in the Diocese of La Rochelle, France. Their daughter Jacqueline (sometimes, Jaquette) came to Quebec and there married twice after the death of her first husband, Marc Tessier, as we saw in the family register above.

Maternal Side

GREGOIRE VIVIER & CLEMENCE ADJOURNE

Parents of PIERRE VIVIER (VIII, 60)

This couple were of the town called Bourg-de-Tiré, in the Diocese of Luçon, which is now in the Department of Vendee, France. They never left there, and their son Pierre was 27 years old when he married in Quebec, in 1665.

Maternal Side

MATHURIN ROY & MARGUERITE BIRE

Parents of MARGUERITE ROY(VIII,60)

These parents of Marg. Roy, who were baptized in France in 1610 and 1616 respectively, seem to have come to Canada about 1656, with several of their older children, Marguerite being the eldest, or atleast the first mentioned by Tanquay.

1. MARGUERITE, born about 1651, in France (See the family register of Pierre Vivier given above).
2. ETIENNE, born probably later, married Marguerite Navarre, in Quebec, 26 Apr.1669, & was buried Mar.1.1690, Charlesbourg.
3. CATHERINE, baptized June 11,1659, in Quebec, married Thomas Pageot there Nov.13,1675, and had quite a large family.
4. MARIE MADELEINE, married Jean Aramy in 1660, a bourgeois of Quebec; but further details are missing for this couple.
5. JEANNE FRANÇOISE, " Pierre Paradis in 1670, son of Pierre & Barbe Guyon; they settled in the parish of St.Pierre, in the Ile d'Orléans, and raised a numerous family. Both were buried in Dec. 1700. This is the 4th line of Roys for us.

This couple never left the parish of Saint Pierre, in the city of Saintes, capital of the present Department of Charente-Inferieure, France. Their daughter Marie came over to Quebec and married there another immigrant, René Emond, who was from the Island of Rhé, off the harbor of La Rochelle. They established themselves on the Island of Orleans.

These people were of the town of Coué, in the Diocese of Poitiers, in the old Province of Poitou, France. Their son Jean came to Quebec and married Renée Joussselot there in 1674. You may recall that her two sisters had also come to Canada, Marie marrying our maternal pioneer, René Gervais, and Anne marrying Toussaint Dubau, widower of Marguerite D'Amy. (See Gen. VIII, couple 10). At any rate, there is Joussselot blood in our veins from both sides of our tree.

Citizens of Langon, a town in the Diocese of La Rochelle, in the parish of St. Vincent, according to the marriage record and the Tanguay Dictionary. There is a town of Langon in the present Department of Gironde, but I doubt that it was ever in the Diocese of La Rochelle, for it seems too close to Bordeaux. Of course the three Joussselot sisters mentioned above came from the same place, wherever it is.

END of CHAPTER I.

REMARKS: -- In 1937, we visited the parish of St. Michel-le-Clou, Department of Vendee, France. It is a nice little country parish, about three miles from the town of Pontenay-le-Comte. There are still Roys living in the parish, but the pastor told us that they know practically nothing of their ancestors. That locality was in the Diocese of Luçon originally at the time of Pierre's birth, but several years later the diocese was made part of that of La Rochelle, so that at the time he was married in Montreal in 1672, the record reads correctly on this point, providing that we remember present-day Vendee as a part of the old Province of Poitou. In some historical research articles we found in Quebec, we found the following statement: "Pierre Roy, from St. Michel-le-Clou, La Rochelle, Aunis, Poitou, founded a line of descendants in the region of Montreal. In the census of 1666, he was in the employ of Jacques Leber, marchand". -- Pierre George Roy, Bulletin des Recherches Historiques, Vol. XXXI, No. 12, Quebec, 1925.

We can subscribe to this whole statement save for the word AUNIS (pronounced ohnees). The little old Province called Aunis never could have been a part of Poitou. It is incorrect to refer to Pierre Roy as an Aunisian; he was a Poitevin.

The oldest of Pierre's children, Marguerite, Sister Conception, C.N.D., was made Superior of a most difficult mission, Louisbourg (Louisburg), on the east coast of Cape Breton Island, Nova Scotia, a fortress that was captured by the British in 1745, restored in 1748, and recaptured in 1758; finally, it had to be abandoned. The historian, Faillon, speaks of this in his Life of the Venerable Marguerite Bourgeois, Foundress of the Congregation of Notre Dame. -- Histoire de L'Acadie, p. 124. Also M. Faillon, Vol. II, pp. 305-343.

A glance at our family tree, or chart, Paternal Side, Gen. VII, couple 3, Anne Roy, and Gen. VI, Madeleine Roy, shows that two of Pierre's daughters married on Dad's side, thus making cousins of our parents, and of our paternal grandparents as well.

In 1939, Sister St. Adalbert, C.N.D., furnished us the following information concerning Sister Conception:

"Gifted with an energetic character, a vivid and penetrating spirit, sincere and tender piety, with rare talent and skill for teaching, she became a precious subject in our Community, to which she was admitted in 1689. She was the 13th member of the Institute among the 24 Sisters to make their first vows, in the presence of Bishop St. Vallier, at Quebec, June 25, 1698. She was only 24 years old at the time and received the beautiful name of Sister Conception as evidence of her love for the Immaculate Virgin. She understood more than ever the duty of imitating the Queen of Angels. May 2, 1692, she had made the gift of all her possessions to the Community, the rights and inheritances that might come to her from her parents, and this in the presence of Lenailleur, the Royal Notary.

"Sister Conception was employed to advantage in several of our missions, then recalled to headquarters, where her zeal did not find enough satisfaction. Then, it happened that our Sisters were called for at Louisburg; but the Community would not accept because it lacked the subjects proper to such a foundation.

"Sister Conception then offered her services to Bishop St. Vallier, who judging her to be the most able for that position, sent her, with two secular young ladies, despite the objections of the Superiors. With the blessing of the Bishop, she left Quebec and arrived at Louisburg in May 1727. She was received with joy by the local authorities and the inhabitants, who at once informed the Minister of France and the King. Within six months she had 22 boarders in school and the number grew steadily each year. After the death of Bishop St. Vallier, his successor, Bishop Mornay, sustained her in her work. Sister Conception's success obtained for her an allowance of 1500 pounds for three Sisters. To secure this privilege it was necessary to keep three Sisters. But because Sister Conception was so pleasing to God, she had to undergo numerous trials. False reports were circulated against her and were magnified before the local governor and the Bishop of Quebec, Bp. Dosquet. Her reputation ruined, she was recalled in 1733. She submitted without a word and spent the rest of her days in the exercise of an obscure and humble life... Her health was notably affected. After her departure six sisters were required to carry on her work at Louisburg. She died after 60 years of religious life, Dec. 13, 1749, four years after the mission had to be abandoned on account of the English conquest of 1745."

6. ABIGAIL, captured by the Indians in 1704.
7. JOHN, _____

With this family register, explanations are in order. Deerfield, Mass., like so many other places in the Atlantic States, had been settled by English Protestants. Thomas French was a deacon in the local parish, and a very influential member of the colony, at the junction of the Connecticut River and the Deerfield, 35 miles north of Springfield, Massachusetts. Queen Anne's War (1702 to 1713) brought destruction to the town. The trouble that had started between France and England had spread to Canada & New England. Toward morning, Feb. 29 1703-4, the Abenaki Indians under the command of a Frenchman made the attack, killed 53 of the inhabitants, took 42 captives (Among them Thomas French, his wife, and 5 children), burned their homes, and started a march through the snow to Canada. Mrs. French and about 20 more of the captives were slain on the march, "for their manner was, if they loitered, to kill them". After months of suffering, the remaining captives got as far as Sorel, Canada, in August. Finally, the Indians, some of whom had been converted to the Catholic faith, left Freedom and Martha French with the Sisters of the Congregation of Notre Dame in Montreal. Freedom was baptized Marie Frances on April 6, 1706, in Montreal, sponsored by an officer, Thomas De Joncaire, and Martha was baptized Martha Marguerite on the 23rd of January 1707, sponsored by Mr. Francois Clairambaut-Daigremont, shipping agent of the Director of Navigation. HOW MARTHA FRENCH MET HER FIRST HUSBAND. Sister Conception, C.N.D., Marguerite Roy, became very fond of the two little English girls, her brother Jacques used to visit her, and --- naturally had him meet them. When Martha was 16½ years of age, he married her, as was shown on the previous page. All these details were obtained from the History of Deerfield, by George Sheldon, and from the records of the Catholic Church in Montreal, with the help of Tanguay's Dictionnaire des Familles Canadiennes. As it was only in May 1955 that we were able to secure the help of the History of Deerfield, the data on the parents of Thomas French and of his wife Mary Catlin were not available, and their names do not appear on our family tree, or chart; but you will find their family registers in Chapter I, Generation VIII, Couples 3 and 4.

BURIAL

We failed to find the church record of marriage of François Ferland, but we did find a lengthy contract in Québec, by VACHON, from which we quote as follows: "...between François Ferland, son of André Ferland & the late Marguerite Bariteau, of the parish of St. Vincent of the Diocese of Mailray, in Poitou, for him and in his name, of the first part; and Jeanne Françoise Milloir, widow in 2nd marriage of the late Jacques Paradis and daughter of Jean Millouer and of Jeanne LeRoy, her parents of the parish of St. Pierre, Isle of Orleans..."

What Vachon didn't know, perhaps, is that there is no diocese of Mailray; it is the Diocese of Maillezeais, and when the contract was written in July 1679, this see had been suppressed since 1648, when Pope Innocent X had detached its territory from the diocese of Luçon and annexed it to that of La Rochelle. You note also the difference of the spelling of the bride's name and that of her father. Such differences are very common in Canadian records. Millouer seems to be the correct form, but I have found it spelled Miloué, etc. Ferland first appears as Fellan in Tanquay, who also gives the variants of Frelan, Ferlan.

MARRIAGE OF LOUIS GUILLET & MARIE TROTIER, could not be found; neither could the baptism of their first child, MARIE LOUISE.

MARRIAGE record of MARIE LOUISE GUILLET & IGNACE GUYON, at Batiscan. Province of Quebec. "On Jan. 12, 1705, after having published at the Masses celebrated on the 4th, 6th, and 11th of said month the three banns of matrimony between Ignace

Guyon, son of Joseph Guyon and of Genevieve Cloutier of the parish of St. Charles-des-Roches, of the first part; and Marie

Louise Guillet, daughter of Louis Guillet and of Marie Trotier of the parish of Batiscan, of the second part; no impediment to said marriage having been found, with the attestation of Father LeLoup, pastor of said St. Charles-des-Roches who certifies to having published these banns on the 11th inst., and with the dispensation of the two others by Rev. Geoffroy, Grand Vicar of the Bishop, no opposition to said marriage having been found, I undersigned Pastor of said Batiscan received their mutual consent of marriage and gave them the nuptial blessing with the ceremonies prescribed by Holy Mother Church, in the presence of said Joseph Guyon, said Louis Guillet, Jean & Augustin Trotier, Jacques Le Moines and François trotain, who have signed.

Said bride from declared not knowing how to sign the register according to law. M.L. Guillet J. Guion L. Guillet

J. Trottier A. Trottier F. Trottain J. le moine P. Roy priest".

BAPTISM of Marie Catherine Guillet, Batiscan. "July 20th 1689, by Me priest exercising the pastoral functions at

Batiscan, was baptized Marie Catherine, daughter of Louis Guillet and of Marie Trottier, and the sponsors ... have declared their inability to sign the register according to law. Volant, priest".

9. MARIE CATHERINE, born in 1706	31 Jan. 1708 Repentigny, P.Q.

We were unable to find the marriage record of Daniel Tetreau's marriage with Catherine Charon, though we did find a reference to their promise of marriage written up by a Rev. Father Stanislesy Missionary, under date of Oct. 10, 1694, and presented in evidence before the Notary Maugue, of Montreal, who drew up a contract, June 26, 1695, after the parties had been wed for some time, to the effect that Catherine shared with her husband the funds and possessions left her by her first husband at the time of his demise, and stipulating that her own children and any she and Daniel might have might profit equally, etc., etc. The year 1694 is therefore generally accepted as that of their nuptials.

DANIEL TETREAU remarried, at Vercheres, 1747, p. 246, to Marie Rende Pineau. Translation of the record: "May 8, 1747, after the publication of two banns of matrimony at the parochial Masses in St. Francis Xavier Parish, Verchers, between Daniel Tetreau of this parish, widower of Catherine Charron, son of the late Louis Tetro and of the late Noëlle Landeau, his parents of the Visitation parish of Champlain in the District of Three Rivers, of the first part; and Marie Rhenée Pinault, widow of Pierre Simon Mercier, daughter of the late Michel Pinault and of Simone Boët, her parents of this parish, of the second part: The parties having dispensation from the Grand Vicar, Rev. Normand, under date of April 22, 1747, from the publication of the 3rd bann and the spiritual relationship between them, no opposition to said marriage having been found, we the undersigned Charles Dufrost de Lajemerais, missionary of St. Francis Xavier Parish, Vercheres, received their mutual consent and married them according to the rites prescribed by Holy Mother Church, Catholic, Apostolic & Roman, in the presence of François Pinault brother of the groom, J.B. Casacans-Lacébauche, of Joseph Pigeon and of Louis Cote, who all declared their inability to sign. The bridegroom signed with us. Daniel Tetro Lajemerais, priest".

A son, Jean Bapt. Tetro, was born to this union and baptized the same day, June 23, 1747. BURIAL of DANIEL. October 16, 1748, I the undersigned Charles Dufrost de Lajemerais missionary of the parish of St. Francis...." -- The rest has never been written.

CHAPTER II (Concluded)

We have just given a translation of the record of Joseph Gendron's second marriage, the one that really concerns us descendants, and we wish to say that besides the variations in spelling of Emond, already referred to, we want to explain that the name of Frances Emond's mother, Louise Picard (in our tree or chart) has its variations also; for we find it written as Louise Senlé, Louise Senlé-Picard, or Picard-Senlé. However, you will note that it is simply Louise Picard in the marriage record.

The marriage record of Joseph Gendron's first marriage also presents more annoying variations of Morriset, the name of his 1st wife's mother. Here is the translation of the French record: - "November 4th in the year 1715, I undersigned after having published three banns of matrimony between Joseph Gendron, son of James Gendron and Marie Charlan, his parents of the parish of St. Jean, of the first part; and Genevieve Asselin, daughter of Jacques Asselin and of the late Marie Mercier, of the second part; no impediments having been found to said union, received their mutual consent of marriage and gave them the nuptial benediction according to the rules prescribed by our Holy Mother the Church. Were present: Pierre Asselin, Joseph Lepaze, Charles Loignon and several others who signed the present record. (Signed): Joseph Lepaze Pierre Asselin Charles Loignon Cloutier, Priest".

Now, according to Tanguay, the name underlined above is Mauricet, Morisset, or Maurisset, each one of which sounds the same when pronounced. As written in the record, on file in the Archives of Quebec, for the parish of St. Pierre, Isle of Orleans, the name looks like we copied it Mercier, which looks and sounds entirely different from Morisset. Evidently, someone made a mistake, either in writing the record, or in copying it.

It is said that Gabriel Cordier and family came from Lorraine in France, and settled in Montreal, where both the girls married. Elisabeth had only one child by her 1st marriage, Eliz. Charlotte, baptized Nov. 14, 1747, Montreal, and buried there, July 2, 1748. There was no issue by her 2nd marriage.

Catherine Cordier was said to be 19 years old at the time of her wedding, according to the History of L'Acadie, by Rev. B. A. Moreau, published in 1908, which would give the year of her birth as 1729; but the Dictionary of Tanguay gives 1725 as the year of her baptism, which must be an error. Her husband, Laurent Roy, was nicknamed KING (and his descendants as well), for the reason that Roy, or roi in French means king in his mother's native language. They first lived in Montreal, then in St. Constant, and finally in Contrecoeur, where they both died fortified by all the spiritual aids of "our Mother, the Holy Roman Church", as related in their burial records, she at the age of 66 and he at the age of 71, despite the fact that he is said to have been 75.

We just cannot give a family register for this couple, but we were fortunate enough to find, among the notes of the Remarkable Acadian genealogist, Placide Gaudet, some data on the only one of François Brault's children who really matters in this direct line, ALEXIS BRAULT. "Born at La Riviere-aux-Canards, Sept. 22, 1821, Alexis Braeu was baptized Nov. 1, 1721, son of François Braeu and of Marie Comeau. Evidently, this is the husband of Marguerite Bariault."

ANTOINE BARIAULT, Nicholas & Martine Hébert
ANGELIQUE THIBODEAU, Pr. & M. Anne Bourg

From reliable sources we gather that this couple are the parents of Marguerite Bariault but we have failed to find any actual proof in the various printed documents or notes available. According to the Census of 1752, as given in the Report of Ottawa, Vol. II, page 101, they had 3 boys and 4 girls at the time, listed as follows:
1. FELICITE, aged 24 (born in 1728); 2. SIMON, aged 21 (born in 1731); 3. MARIE, aged 19 (born in 1733); 4. JEAN CHARLES, aged 16 (born in 1736); 5. EUSTACE, aged 14 (born in 1738); 6. MARIE BLANCHE, aged 12 (born in 1740); 7. MARGUERITE JOSEPH, aged 10 (born in 1742).

As we just saw at the bottom of the previous page, the Marguerite Bariault who married Alexis Brault was wed to him about 1748, when Marguerite Joseph (No. 7 above) was only six years old. So, it may be that as Marguerite had already been married about 2 years when the Census was taken, she was not present when the Census-taker came around and her data was overlooked. In any case, we have evidence that Marguerite is the daughter of this couple, and that she had her fourth child by Alexis Brault, the day before she was deported in 1755, to the State of Maine, with many other women and children. Consequently, we shall put her down here as No. 8 in this family.

"In the year of our Lord 1718, on the first of August, after having published three banns of matrimony at the parochial Masses, the first on July 24th at Vercheres, the 2nd on the 25th at Contrecoeur, the 3rd at St. Ours, between Louis Guillet, son of Louis Guillet farmer of Batiscan and of Marie Trotier his father and mother; of the first part; and Marguerite Tetrau daughter of Daniel Tetrau and Catherine Charon, her parents of the parish of Vercheres, without there having been any opposition, I undersigned Pastor of the parish of Vercheres, received their Mutual Consent of marriage and gave them the nuptial blessing with the prescribed Ceremonies of the Church, in the presence of Louis Guillet father of said groom and of Daniel father of the bride, of Jacques Le Moynes of Montigny, of Joseph Guillet, of Ignatius Dion, of Jacques Tetreau, of Jean Tetreau. Signed: Daniel Tetro J.B. Tetro J Lemoine De Montigny. The others declared their inability to do so. In faith of which I signed Louis Delafoye".

BURIAL OF MARGUERITE TETREAU, Vercheres, 1733, folio 109. "In the year 1733, March 19th, I undersigned Charles Dufrost de Lajemerais missionary of the parish of Vercheres buried in the cemetery of this parish the body of Marguerite Tetro, wife of Louis Guillet aged about 30 years (note she was in her 37th year), who had died the day before in the Catholic, Apostolic, Roman faith after having received the sacraments of Viaticum and Extreme Unction. Present at the burial were Nicholas Martel and Charles Palardy who declared they could not sign the register according to law. Lajemerais priest".

Tanguay does not mention the 2nd marriage of Louis Guillet, but we found the record of it at Vercheres, 1733, folio 119. "On the 22nd of the month of June 1733, after the publication of 3 banns of matrimony at our parochial Masses between Louis Guillet of Vercheres, widower of Marguerite Tetreau aged 37 years, son of the late Louis Guillet and of Marie Catherine Trotier, his parents of the parish of Batiscan, of the first part; and Marie Françoise Normandin aged 30 years (she was 34), daughter of the late Daniel Normandin and of the late Louise Afot, her parents of the parish of Champlain (P.Q.), of the 2nd part. The parties having obtained from the Rev. Grand Vicar the dispensation of the 3 banns of matrimony that were to have been made in the bride's parish, no impediment having been found to said marriage, We undersigned Charles Dufrost de Lajemerais missionary of Vercheres have received their mutual consent of marriage and have united them according to the form prescribed according to the rite prescribed by our Mother the Holy Catholic Apostolic Roman Church, in the presence of Daniel Tetro father-in-law of the groom, and of Joseph Guyon his nephew, of François Bernard cousin of the bride, and of Pierre Gauthier and several other relatives and friends among whom several, with the bride, declared that they knew not how to sign this register according to law, and the others, with the groom, have signed with us. Louis Guillet Daniel Tetro Lajemerais priest".

(We found the baptism of one son and of one daughter born to this marriage: Jean Francis Guillet, baptized Apr. 16, 1734 and Marie Joseph, baptized Apr. 26, 1736, both at Vercheres).

Tanguay also missed the Baptism of CATHERINE GUILLET (No. 8). Vercheres, 1730. "June 3, 1730, I undersigned missionary of Vercheres, baptized Catherine Amable, born the same day of the legitimate marriage of Louis Guillet and of Marguerite Tetro of this parish. The sponsors: Augustin Deranleau called Chateaufort and Augustine Guertin who have signed with the father. Louis Guillet Augustin Deranleau Aug. Sairtten Lajemerais priest".

No. 9, Louis Guillet, the last of the children by the first marriage, was baptized privately by the wife of Daniel Tetro, Feb. 24, 1733, at Vercheres, and buried the following day. This was also omitted by Tanguay.

Note:-- Honoré Lord had at least 5 children by his 1st wife, 7 by the 2nd, and 8 by the 3rd. Most of the data concerning him and his family comes from the notes of Placide Gaudet and from the registers of Yamachiche, L'Acadie, & St. Luc, in the Province of Quebec, where they migrated from exile in New England. His oldest child, Honore, Jr., was probably born in exile, March 5, 1766, and baptized privately there, receiving conditional baptism at Yamachiche, P.Q., Feb. 26, 1768. --See Tanagay, Vol. V, p. 158. Also, Generation V, Couple 5, in Chapter IV, in this book.

Angelique Comeau, as mistakenly appears on our family chart, is not our ancestress, as you will note from the family register given above; ours is wife No. 2, Charlotte Bonnevie, the daughter of Jacques Bonnevie & Francoise Mius. Our maternal grandmother, Olive Lord used to tell us that way back there was Indian blood among the ancestors. I doubt this, but it is barely possible in the Mius family, as I did find several of that line who inter-married with Micmac Indians. For example, a François Mius married Marie, an Indian girl, about 1700; they had at least 6 children, one of whom was Francoise, born in 1709, who married (1) a Micmac Indian called René Grand Claude from Heve, Acadia; (2) on the 22 Aug. 1735, married a second Indian, named Pierre Viller, the widower of Louise Innocence. Surely, the mother of Charlotte Bonnevie, Francoise Mius, must have been born quite a while before 1709, who married Jacques Bonnevie, apparently no Indian.

NOTE:-- We may be fairly certain that considerably more data on the families of this Vith generation could have been found in the records of the churches involved if time had permitted searching for them. However, what we did find enabled us to trace the direct lines of ancestry down to the present; but for the next descending generations-- V,IV,III,II & I-- Tanguay had nothing to offer. Therefore, personal research and correspondence were our only resource. Chapter IV will now give the reader the results of our efforts for Generation V.

ISABELLE BRAULT, the wife of No. 3, was only a day old when her parents and their three older children were exiled from Port Royal, Nova Scotia, and shipped to New England, with numerous other Acadians. She sometimes went by the name of Elisabeth, or Lisette and Elisabeth. Our ancestress, Frances Rose Brault, wife of No. 4, was born somewhere south of Boston, about 1763, two years or so after her father Alexis Brault had wandered for about 4 years, seeking his wife and his four older children.

LAURENT ROY, the head of this family, the son of Jacques & Marthe French, nicknamed King, and his descendants as well, was so called because his French name Roy, in the language of his mother, means king; for she was English, though her family name is FRENCH. About the year 1770, Laurent Roy acquired adjoining parcels of wooded land on the east bank of the Petite Riviere de Montreal (the Little Montreal River) for his two sons Laurent and François, who both established themselves there. Together, they found themselves in possession of 360 acres of good land still covered with virgin forest, elms, ash, maple, and some white cherry; they built a sawmill at once by the side of the river, so as to use the lumber they needed for buildings. Moreover, they sold in Montreal what they did not need, especially the elm yokes and other such curved woods that were very much in demand at that time. Soon, they were thrifty colonists. Meantime, Alexis Brault & his family came from Massachusetts and settled on the opposite bank of the Little River. As they have just seen above, Laurent, Jr., married Isabelle in 1777, and François wed Françoise Rose, the following year, in the nearest parish of St. Philippe de la Prairie. Laurent's marriage record is signed: Laurent Roy, Louis Tremblay (bride) (groom).

Sponsors: Maurice l'Irlande and M. Mad. Jacques who, except the father, declared they could not sign the register. Laurent Roy Petit priest". Marriage & burial checked but not copied.
4. Baptism of FRANÇOIS ROY, Contrecoeur, 1754, p.5. "In the year 1754 on the second of March, was baptized François born the same day of the legitimate marriage of Laurent Roy and of Catherine Cordier. Sponsors: François Lacroix & Magdeleine Ratel who declared they could not sign the register. Petit priest".
Marriage of FRANÇOIS ROY. St. Philippe, 1778, Aug. 3. "On August 3rd, 1778, after the publication of 3 banns of matrimony at out parochial Masses on three consecutive Sundays between François Roy son of Laurent Roy and of Catherine Cordier of the Parish of Contrecoeur, of the first part; and Françoise Bro daughter of Alexis Bro and of Marguerite Barlo of this parish, of the second part; no impediment to said marriage having appeared, we Pastor of St. Jean François Régis undersigned received their mutual consent and gave them the nuptial benediction according to the form prescribed by our Mother Holy Church, and this in presence of Laurent Roy father, Catherine Cordier mother, Louis Tremblay, Joseph Menard brothers-in-law of the groom; of Jean Baptiste Bro brother, of Charles Bro brother, Firmin Boudro brother-in-law of the bride, and others, some of whom signed and others, along with the groom knew not how. Louis Tremblay Lauren Roy Marie Louise Roy J. Gamelin pastor".
Burial record checked but not copied.
5. Baptism, CATHERINE ROY, Contrecoeur, 1757, p. 9. "On the 12th of May 1757 was baptized Marie Catherine born the same day of the marriage of Laurent Roy & of Catherine Cordier: Sponsors: J. Baptiste Jendron & Marie Josette Dequire. The father and the godfather signed with us. Jan baptiste Jandron Laurent roy Petit, priest, SS." Her marriage to Joe Menard of St. Ours, checked but not copied; her burial not found.
6. Baptism of Marie Louise Roy, Contrecoeur, 1760, p.3. "In the year 1760 on the 2nd of March, was baptized Louise born the same day of the marriage of Laurent Roy and of Catherine Cordier. Sponsors: Jacques Carlot and Marie Anne Lisette l'Irlande who do not sign. The father signed with us. (But he did not). Petit priest". Her records of Marriage & burial not copied.
7. Baptism, ELIZABETH ROY, Contrecoeur, 1762, p.8. "Oct. 16, 1762, I, Missionary priest undersigned baptized Marie Elizabeth born last night, daughter of Laurent Roy and Catherine Cordier, her parents of this parish. Sponsors: myself and Marie Elizabeth Menard, wife of François Cheillé who declared he cannot sign. The father signed. Lauren roy S. Reizenne Priest".
Her burial record was not found.
8. Baptism, MARGUERITE ROY II., Contrecoeur, 1764, p. 6. "June 11, 1764, I undersigned priest baptized Marguerite, born this day, the legitimate daughter of Laurent Roy and of Catherine Cordier. Sponsors: François Bonin and Marie Anne Roy sister of the child, who declared she could not sign. The father present signed. Laurent Roy Curatteau priest".
Her burial, Contrecoeur, 1765, p. 6. "April 27, 1765, was buried in the cemetery of this parish the body of Marguerite Roy who died yesterday at the age of about six months, the daughter of Laurent Roy and of Catherine Cordier. Present: François Chayer and Joseph Favraud who said they could not sign. Curatteau, priest".

9. Baptism, MARGUERITE III, Contrecoeur, 1766, p. 3. "May 7, 1766, by us undersigned priest Pastor was baptized Marguerite (conditionally) born the last day of April of the legitimate marriage of Laurent Roy and of Catherine Cordier. Sponsors: Laurent Roy and Marie Anne Roy sister of the child, who declared she could not sign. The father signed with us. L. Roy Gervaise priest". Her burial was not found in the records.

10. Baptism, JOSEPH ROY, Contrecoeur, 1768, p. 2. "Jan. 23, 1768, by us undersigned priest Pastor of Contrecoeur was baptized Joseph born this day of the legitimate marriage of Laurent Roy and of Catherine Cordier; sponsors: Laurent Roy brother and Marie Louise Labrosiere, who said they could not sign. The father signed with us. Laurent Roy Martel priest". Marriage, JOSEPH ROY, L'Acadie, 1795, p. 3. "January 26, 1795, after the publication of 3 banns of matrimony at our parochial Masses on three consecutive Sundays between Joseph Roy, son of Laurent Roy and of Catherine Cordier, his parents of the parish of the Holy Trinity called Contrecoeur, of the first part; and Esther Hebert, daughter of the late Joseph Hebert and of Marie Anne Bourg, her parents of this parish, of the second part; no impediment whatever having been found to said marriage, we the undersigned received their mutual consent and gave them the nuptial benediction following the form prescribed by our mother The Holy Roman Church, and this in presence of Joseph Merard brother-in-law, Jean Baptiste Baron, friend, of the groom, of David Hebert & Jacques Hebert brothers, Joseph Dupuy cousin, of the bride, who declared they can't sign. K. p. Lancto priest". We failed to find the record of his 2nd marriage, nor of the contract by Henry, Jan. 16, 1809. His burial record was not located either.

You will doubtless note the various approximate dates of birth in this family register, but exact ones seemed impossible to obtain. Moreover, Alexis and his wife may have had more than these six children. Along in the 1760's, the family came from their Massachusetts exile and settled first at Laprairie before finding their permanent home on the west bank of the Little Montreal River, opposite the Roy brothers farms. Many other Acadian exiled families settled in the same locality and the Canadians, like the Roy Brothers, had to attend church at St. Philippe de la Prairie until about 1792 before there was question of a new parish at L'Acadie (Little Acadia). A presbytery was first built, with a chapel on the second story, but this accommodation was so small that the church was built in 1800 and 1801, though it was blessed Sept. 2, 1800. with Saint Marguerite of Scotland as its patroness, whose statue surmounts the front entrance. The main altar was not consecrated till 1842, about 7 years after our grandfather, Mose Gervais was baptized there and two years after Mother Leonie Paradis received the same sacrament at same baptismal font. (See next page for the records we found).

BURIAL of ALEXIS BRAULT, L'Acadie, 1811 folio 230. "The 18th of July 1811 by us undersigned priest was buried in the cemetery of this parish the body of Alexis Bro, farmer, widower of Marguerite Bereaut, who died the day before yesterday at the age of about 84 years. Present: Amant Hebert & Joseph Bro his son, who declared they could not sign. Lancto." BURIAL of MARGUERITE BARIAULT, L'Acadie, 1805, folio 48. "On December 18th 1805 by us undersigned priest was buried in the cemetery of this parish the body of Marguerite Bariau, wife of Alexis Bro, farmer, deceased yesterday, fortified by the Sacraments, at the age of 69 years. Present: Amant Hebert, Anselme Bro, who said they could not sign. Lancto."

NOTE:-- Alexis Brault. The burial record given above would have him born in 1727, whereas Placid Gaudet reported that he was born Sept. 22, 1721, a difference of 6 years, which would give him the age of 90 when he died, or nearly so. Marguerite Bariau. By her burial record, which states that she was 69 years of age, puts her birth in 1736, the only indication we found. This means that she married at the age of about 12 years, in 1748 -- uncommon in those days. But the date of marriage is also only an approximation, for no record for it exists. However, they had four children in 1755 when they were exiled by the British. While Gaudet cites that Alexis was born Sept. 22nd 1721 & baptized Nov. 1, 1721, no one seems to have been able to find a similar record for Marguerite. No baptismal records found for any child of theirs 1. MARRIAGE, Jean Baptiste Brault, Laprairie, 1774. "In the year 1774, the 21st of November, after having published at our parochial High Mass on three consecutive Sundays the promise of matrimony between Jean Baptiste Brault, son of Alexis Brault and of Marguerite Bario, his parents of the parish of St. Philippe, of the first part; and Charlotte Brosseau, daughter of the late Pierre Brosseau and of Marie Anne Denauts, her parents of the parish of Laprairie de la Madeleine, of the second part; having discovered no impediment nor opposition to said marriage, and having the certificate of the same publication made at St. Philippe, without any opposition whatever, signed J. Gamelin priest, I undersigned pastor of the parish of Laprairie de la Madeleine, received their mutual consent and gave them the nuptial benediction according to the form prescribed by our Mother Holy Church in presence of Olivier Hebert, Francis Brosseau, Pierre Chabot, Antoine Dumoulet, who with the parties all declared they could not sign. Jacques Desligneris Priest."

NOTE:-- This couple appear on the Paternal Side of our Chart, Generation V, 8.

2. CHARLES BRAULT. No records found.

3. MARRIAGE, Joseph Brault, St. Philippe, P.Q., 1774, folio 80. "July 25, 1774, in view of the dispensation from the third degree of relationship given by the Rev. Magr., the Grand Vicar, and after the publication of 3 banns of matrimony at our parochial Masses on 3 consecutive Sundays between Joseph Bro son of Alexis Bro and of Marguerite Bariau of this parish of the first part; and Felicité Boudro daughter of Antoine Boudro and of Marie Joseph Leblanc, also of this parish, of the second part; there having been discovered no impediment to said marriage, we pastor of St. Jean Francis Regis undersigned received their mutual consent and gave them the nuptial benediction following the form prescribed by our Mother the Holy Church, and this in presence of Alexis Bro father, of Jean Baptiste Bro brother, Honorius Landry cousin of the groom, of Antoine Boudro father, Olivier Hebert, Jean Leblanc cousins of the bride and of several others, who also with the parties do not know how to sign. J. Gamelin pastor of St. Jean Francois regis." Burial record not found.

* 5. BAPTISM, Françoise Rose Brault, Parish of L'Assomption, 1767. "In the year 1767, on the 17th day of May, the ceremonies of Baptism were supplied by me undersigned priest to Françoise Rose, having been privately christened through necessity at the age of four years and about two months in the Province of Boston, born of the legitimate marriage of Alexis Brost and Marguerite Bériau, an Acadian nationality. The sponsors were Louis(?) and Marie Rose Loisel wife of Joseph Marin, who knew not how to sign as required by law. G. Degeay." "This extract, we, undersigned, certify to conform to the original. (Signed): C. Malboeuf, priest, vic. L'Assomption, this 19 January 1944".

NOTE:-- We owe this copy of the official baptism of Françoise Rose Brault to the courtesy of Sister Mary Naomi, of the Little Sisters of the Holy Family, who were founded by Mother Marie Jeonie Paradis, second cousin of our Mother.

The marriage record of her marriage to Francis Roy: copy under their family register. We failed to copy her Burial record. 4. ISABELLE BRAULT, baptism in old Acadia could not be found. Her marriage to Laurent Roy, Aug. 11, 1777, was checked at St. Philippe, but not copied; the year of her burial is from L'Histoire de L'Acadie, by Moreau, 1908.

1. BAPTISM, M. Angelique Savignac, Vercheres, 1749, folio 306, #44. "Nov. 2nd 1749, I, undersigned Charles Dufrost de Lajemer-ais, missionary of the parish of St. François Xavier of Vercheres, baptized Marie Angelique, born this day, of the legitimate marriage of François Savignac & of Marie Angelique Guillet. Sponsors: Louis Guillet who signed with us and Marie Josette Guyon wife of Nicholas Coursol, wholesaler merchant of this place, who with the father, declared they could not sign. Louis Guillet Lajemerais priest". We failed to find her burial, but as another M. Angelique was baptized in 1757, the probability is that that the first one had died before that.
2. MARIE FRANÇOISE SAVIGNAC, Baptism, record not found. Burial, Vercheres, 1752. "In the year 1752, on Aug. 30th, there died in this parish of Vercheres Pierre Charpentier son of Jacques Charpentier and of Jeanne Favrau citizens of Vercheres, aged 15 days, and Marie Françoise Savignac daughter of François Savignac and of Marie Angelique Guillet, living at Vercheres, aged 2 months. Their bodies were buried in the cemetery of this parish, with the ceremonies prescribed by Holy Church, in the presence of Pierre Silvain of Vercheres, the 31st of the month, and all present declared they could not sign. (Signed): devobla".
3. MARIE AMABLE SAVIGNAC. Baptismal data found in Tanguay. Marriage record found at Vercheres, Feb. 3, 1772, not copied. Burials of the parties not found.
4. FRANÇOIS SAVIGNAC. Baptismal data from Tanguay; record not found. Neither was his burial record.
5. ANGELIQUE SAVIGNAC. " record could not be found, but the date is indicated in the following burial record: "Vercheres, 1758, folio 11. In the year 1758, on Oct. 31st, there was buried in the cemetery of this parish the body of Angelique, aged 16 months, the daughter of François Savignac and of Angelique Guillet. Said burial was done with the customary ceremonies in the presence of Joseph Lafleure, who knew not how to sign. (Signed): Merureau priest".
6. MARIE FRANÇOISE SAVIGNAC. Baptismal data from Tanguay, not found, but he gives no burial data; neither could we find it.
7. MARGUERITE SAVIGNAC, our ancestress. All our efforts to find her record of baptism failed. See Chapter V, Gen. IV, Couple 2, for the marriage record to Louis Ferland. We failed to find till we consulted the Genealogy of Gustave Monette, by Joseph Drouin, the Lawyer of Montreal. Her death is indicated in the marriage record of her son Louis Ferland, just mentioned, as having occurred previous prior to 1813.

NOTE:-- There may have been other children born to this family, but we failed to find the evidence.

CHAPTER IV

EXTRACTS FROM THE REGISTERS

HONORE LORD'S FIRST MARRIAGE. Validated at Bécancour, Nicolet Co., Canada, Parish of the Notivity, 1767, page 47. "In the year 1767, on the 29th of September, We, undersigned Missionary Priest of the Parish of the Nativity of Bécancour, validated the marriage between Honoré Lor and Apolline Garsau, both Acadians, who had been married by François Landry in England (New England is here meant), and no impediment having been discovered to said marriage, we gave them the nuptial benediction according to the form prescribed by our Mother the Holy Church, and this in presence of François Lagrave and of Antoine Sabourin, who declared they knew not how to sign this register. (Signed): F. Louis Demers, Recollet Priest".

SECOND MARRIAGE of Honoré Lord. L'Acadie, 1790, folio 1. "The eleventh of January 1790, after the publication of 3 banns of matrimony at our parochial Masses on two Sundays and one intervening holyday between Honoré Lord, widower of Apolline Garsau, of this parish, of the first part; and Suzanne Lafay, daughter of François Lafay and of Marguerite Foret, her parents also of this parish, of the second part; no impediment having been discovered to said marriage, we undersigned priest received their mutual consent and gave them the nuptial benediction according to the form prescribed by our Mother the Holy Roman Church, and this in presence of Joseph Michel, Victor Girouard, Joseph Commeaux cousin, Honoré and François Lord sons, André Lancieau, Antoine Brousseau, François Brousseau friends of the groom, and of François Lafay, Pierre Trahan, Jean Dupuy, Marie Hebert friends, Marguerite and Julienne Lafaye sisters of the bride, several of whom signed with us after this was read. Mrie Lore Honoré Lore Marguerite Lafay Jean Dup Brosseau Lancto priest".

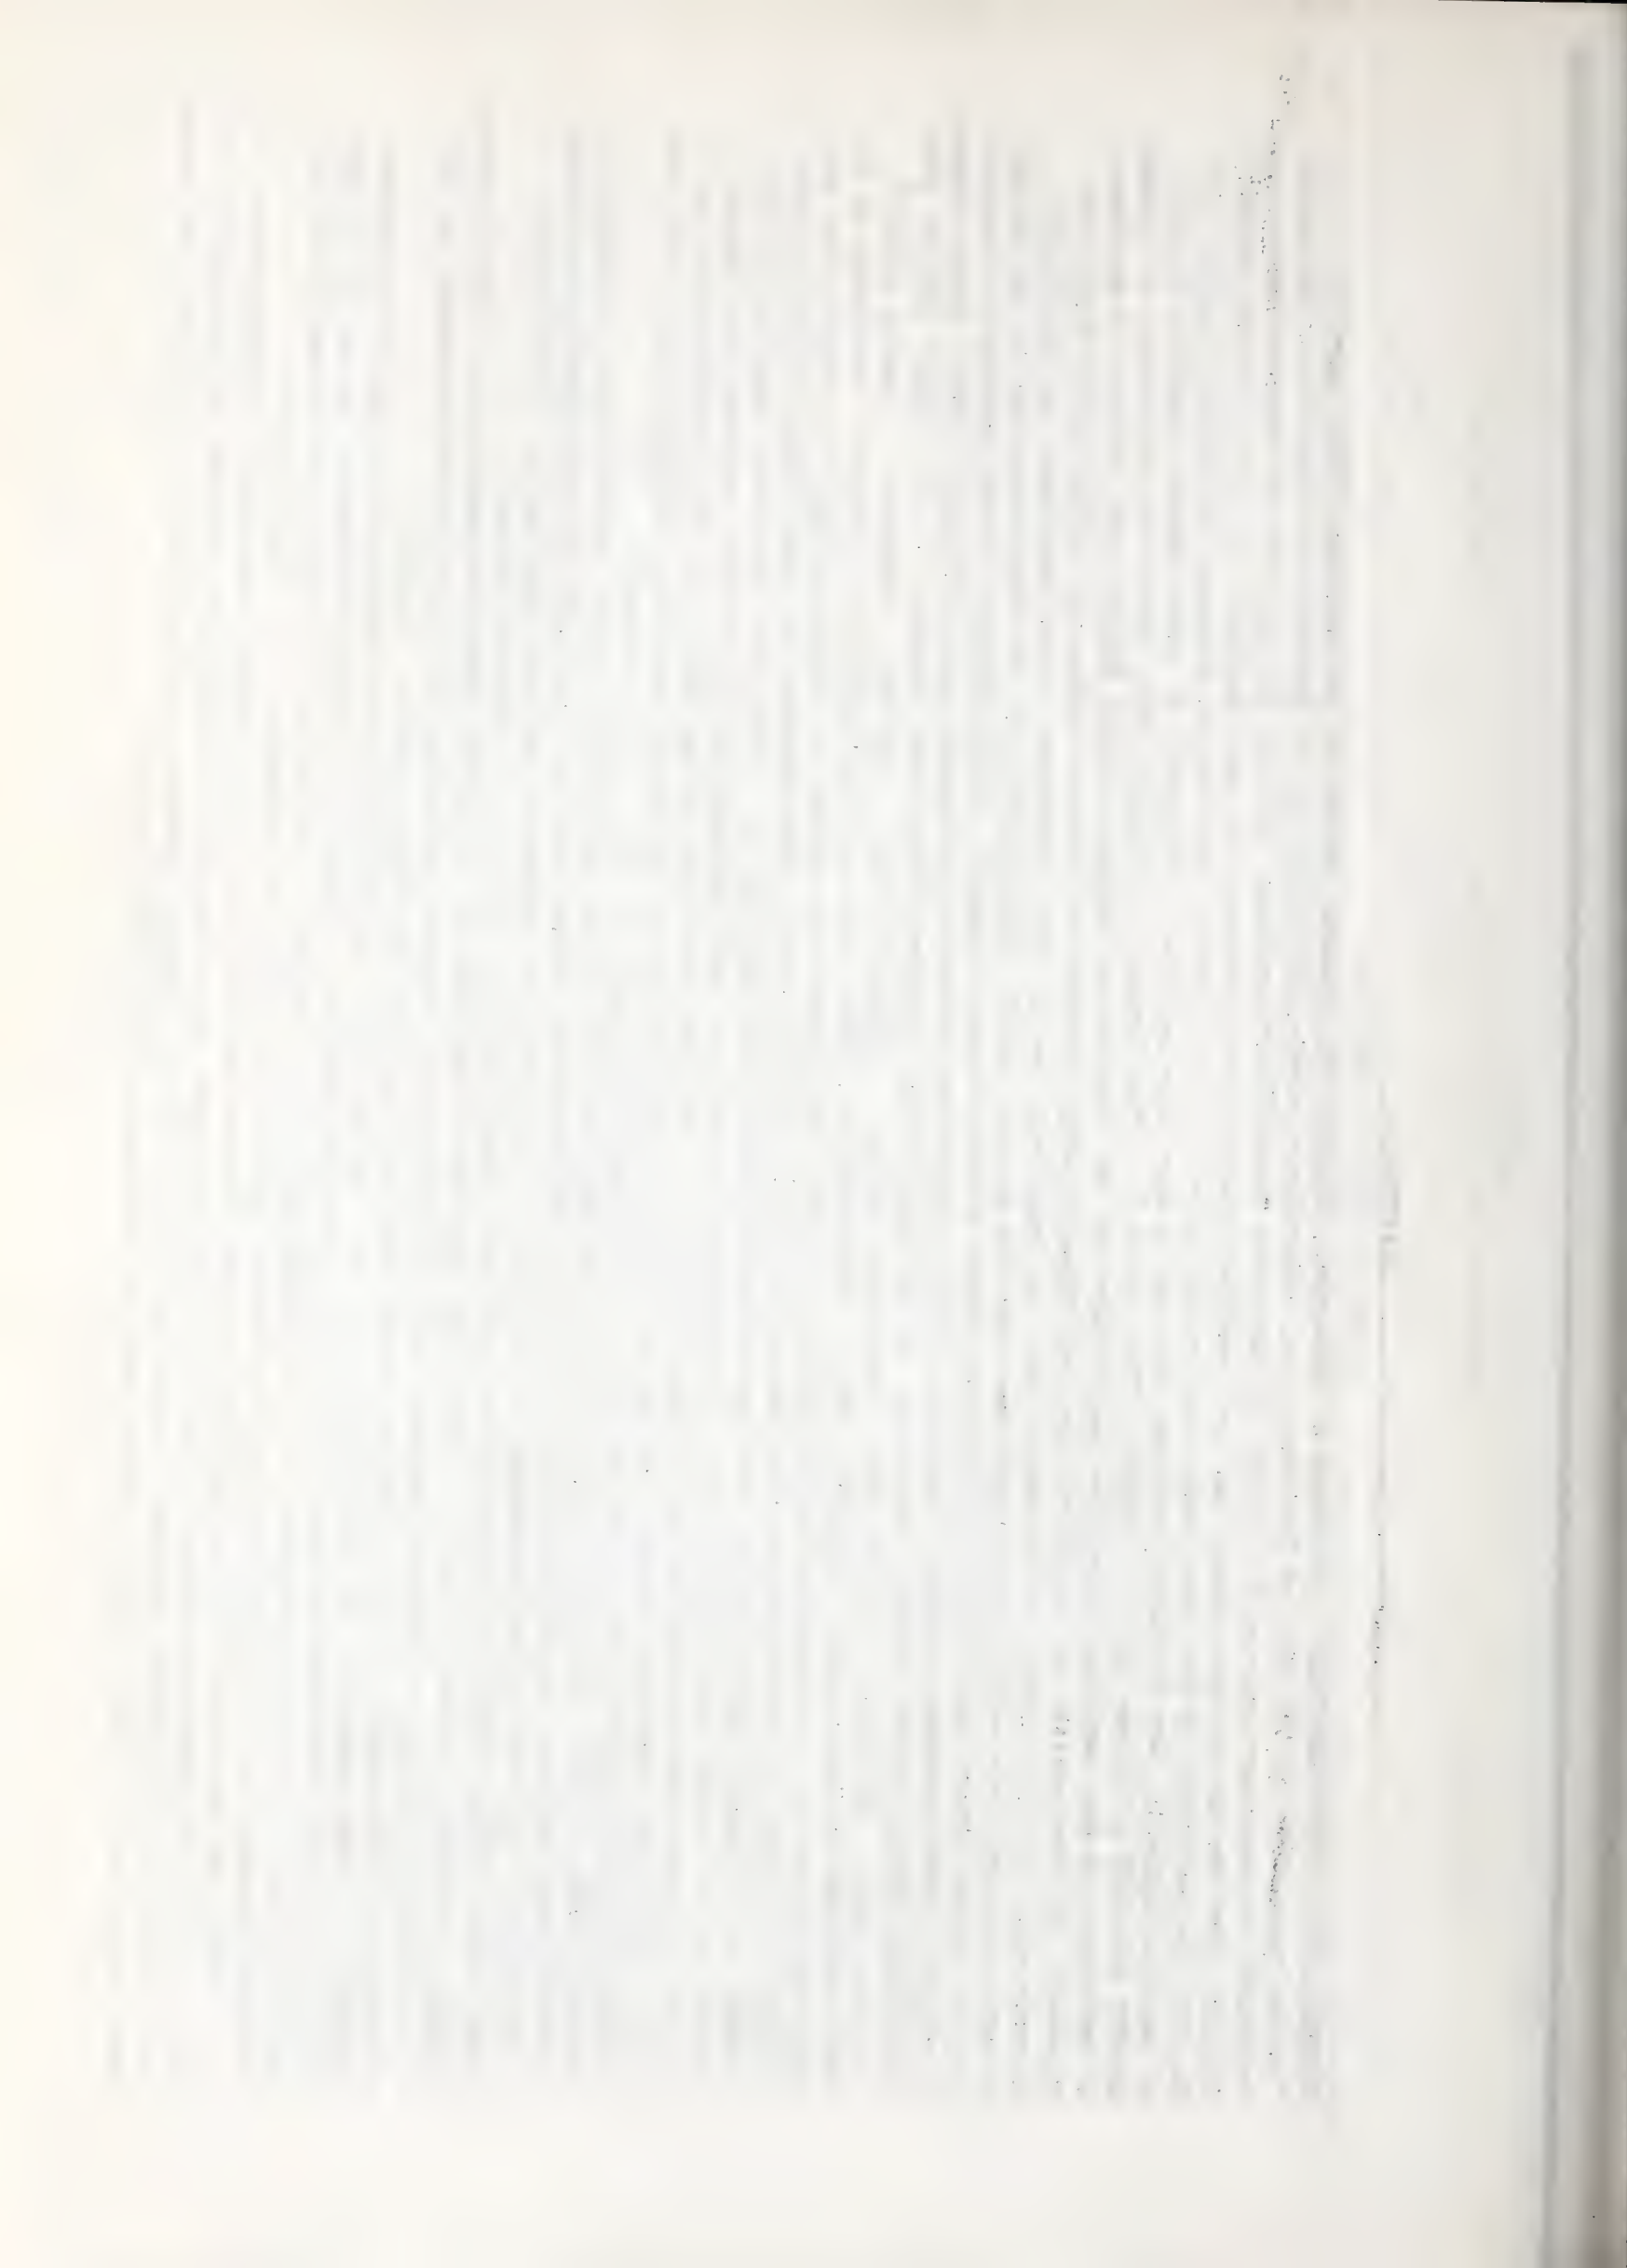

THIRD MARRIAGE of Honoré Lord. L'Acadie, 1804. "February 13th, 1804, after the publication of 3 banns of matrimony at our parochial Masses on 3 consecutive Sundays between Honoré Lord, farmer and widower of Susanne Lafay, his second wife, and living at St. Luc, of the first part; and Marguerite Babin called Lacroix, minor daughter of Louis Babin called La Croix farmer, and of Marie Jeanne Laporte, her parents consenting to said marriage and living with their said daughter in this parish, of the second part; no impediment having been discovered to said marriage, we undersigned received their mutual consent and gave them the nuptial benediction according to the form prescribed by our Mother the Holy Roman Church, and this in presence of Antoine Brousseau son-in-law, Victor Girouard friend of the groom, and Pierre Babin paternal uncle, and Charles Fisset friend of the bride, who all declared that they could not sign. R. p. Lancto".

BURIAL of HONORE LORD. St. Luc, 1818, folio 53. "On May 22nd 1818, by us undersigned Priest, was buried in the cemetery of this place, after a funeral High Mass, the body of Honoré Laure, farmer, who died yesterday in said locality at the age of 76 years, fortified by the Sacraments of the Church, the husband of Marguerite Babin of this parish. At the burial were present Etienne Martin & Alexis Cartier, who said that they could not sign. C. Martin, Priest".

BURIAL of APOLLINE GARCEAU. L'Acadie, 4 May 1788. "The 4th of May 1788, by us priest undersigned was buried in the cemetery of this parish the body of Apolline Garceau, wife of Honoré Lord, deceased yesterday, fortified by the Sacraments, at the age of about forty years. Present: Flavien Dupuis, Antoine Boudreau, and several others. Lancto".

BURIAL of SUSANNE LAFAILLE. St. Luc, 1803, folio 37. "On the 9th of August 1803 by us Pastor of this parish undersigned there was buried in the parish cemetery the body of Susanne Lafaille, deceased day before yesterday at the age of 32 years and fortified by the last sacraments, wife of Honoré Laur farmer living in this parish. Present: André Ignace Dupuis and François Brousseau who declared inability to sign this register according to ordinance... f. Bélair priest".

NOTE:-- We could not find the baptismal records of these Acadians, which were probably destroyed. Extracts from their children's records are given on the reverse of this page. No records of those privately baptized in exile exist, but we did find the conditional baptismal records of a few of them in Canada. However, as the offspring of the 2nd & 3rd unions were born after the time of exile, we were able to find many of their church records.

CHAPTER IV

1. MARRIAGE of HONORE LORD, Jr. L'Acadie, 1789, folio 14. "The tenth of August 1789, after the publication of 3 banns of matrimony at our parochial Masses, on 3 consecutive Sundays, between Honore' Lord and of the late Apolline Garseault, his parents of this parish, of the first part; and Marie Lafaille (or Lafay), daughter of Francois Lafay and of Marguerite Foret, her parents also of this parish, of the second part; no impediment to said marriage having been found, we undersigned received their mutual consent and gave them the nuptial benediction according to the form prescribed by our Mother the Holy Roman Church, and this in presence of Honore' Lord father, Victor Girouard cousin, Charles Lanoue friend of the groom, and of Francois Lafay, undersigned, Marguerite and Susanne Lafay sisters of the bride undersigned. EXTRACTS FROM THE REGISTERS

1. BAPTISM of LOUIS LIGNY, Jr. St. Thomas of Montmagny, P.Q., Vol. III, folio 184, 1769. "In the year 1769, Jan. 2nd, I, undersigned Priest, Pastor of St. Thomas, baptized, with the regular ceremonies, a boy who was born this day of the legitimate marriage of Louis Ligny and of Marie Louise Bouchard, of this parish. He was called Louis by Joseph Bouchard grandfather of the child, and Catherine Bouchard, wife of Joseph Bernier, his sponsors, who declared that they knew not how to sign this register, the father signing with us. Louis Ligny Maison Basse, priest".
The marriage of this boy, probably at Laprairie, P.Q., to Elizabeth Morin, was not found. On April 10, 1810, at Laprairie, they had a child baptized, whose aunt, Marie Ligny, then Mrs. Jean B. Lord, acted as its godmother.
The burial of Louis Ligny, Jr. was not found.
2. BAPTISM of MARGUERITE LIGNY. St. Thomas, 1770, Vol. III, folio 207. "October 7, 1770, I Undersigned priest Pastor of St. Thomas baptized, with the regular ceremonies, a girl born the same day of the legitimate marriage of Joseph Louis Ligny and of Louise Bouchard of this parish; she was called Marguerite by Joseph Bernier and Marguerite Côté, her sponsors, who declared that they knew not how to sign this register. Maisonbasse, priest." (No other record found for her)
3. ANGELIQUE URSULE LIGNY. St. Thomas, 1772, Vol. III, folio 239. "August 30th 1772, I Undersigned priest Pastor of St. Thomas baptized, with the customary rites, a girl born the same day of the legitimate marriage of Louis Ligny and of Marie Louise Bouchard of this parish; she was called Angelique Ursule by Jean Baptist Bouchard and Angelique Ursula Proux, her sponsors, who declared their inability to sign this register. Maisonbasse, priest". (Other records for her not found).
4. JEAN BAPTIST LIGNY, Baptism, St. Thomas, 1774, Vol. III, folio 277. "In 1774 on the 23rd of August I Undersigned priest Pastor of St. Thomas baptized, with the customary rites, a boy born the same day of the legitimate marriage of Louis Ligny and of Marie Louise Bouchard; he was named Jean Baptist Bernier and Veronica Bouchard, his sponsors, who declared that they did not know how to sign this register; the father signed with us. Louis Ligny Maisonbasse, priest". (Other than this, no record was found for him).
5. BAPTISM of MARIE THERESE LIGNY. St. Thomas, 1776, Vol. III, folio 311. "On the 14th of August 1776, I Undersigned priest Pastor of St. Thomas baptized with the customary ceremonies a girl born the day preceding of the legitimate marriage of Louis Ligny and of Marie Joseph (Louise) Bouchard of this parish; she was named Marie Theresa by Jacques Jeandron and Marie Theresa Bernier, her sponsors, who said they did not know how to sign this record. Maisonbasse".
HER BURIAL. St. Thomas, 1776, Vol. III, folio 318. "December 20th, 1776, I Undersigned priest Pastor of St. Thomas buried in the cemetery of this parish with the ordinary ceremonies the body of Theresa Ligny who died the day before at the age of four months., and this in presence of Zacharie Bonneau witness who declared he could not sign... Maisonbasse."
6. MARIE LIGNY. Baptismal record not found. The date of her birth was determined from her burial record, found but not copied. For the record of her marriages see that of Jean B. Lord; family register of his father gives the same data for them as are found in that of her parents. Record of the 2nd marriage was not found.
7. LOUISE LIGNY. Baptismal record not found. Marriage record, at Laprairie, Nov. 27, 1811, to J.B. Bouchard, found, not copied.
No trace of her burial record was found.

EXTRACTS FROM THE REGISTERS

BAPTISM of FRANÇOIS LAFAILLE. The old registers in Acadia, where he was born about 1744 were nearly all destroyed. 1st MARRIAGE of FRANÇOIS LAFAILLE, IN EXILE. Extract from the records of L'Acadie, P.Q., 1792. "The 23rd of June 1792, we undersigned received the mutual consent of François Lafaye and of Marguerite Foret, who had plighted their troth before a Justice of the Peace, in the colonies, for lack of a priest, in the year 1767 on the 10th of November, and now in and according to the prescribed rite by our Holy Roman Church. The groom signed with us, the bride declaring that she did not know. François Lafay Lancto priest". Extract from a letter by Rev. Elise Choquet, Ph.D., Pastor of Delson, Laprairie Co., P.Q. "In reference to the marriage Lafay-Foret, before a Justice of the Peace, in the colonies, for lack of priests, there is evidently question of an Acadian marriage, and there are many such examples at Chambly, Nicolet, Sorel, and especially at Laprairie. This is understandable. The unfortunate Acadians, dispersed in 1755, received an amnesty from Gov. Murray, in the spring of 1766, and as the news reached them, they undertook to return to Canada. Between 1765 to 1780, the roads to Montreal was filled with them. (Continued on the next page)

"But from 1755 to their return, they had to live, and their children marry. A few of the older ones (we know of 3) received from the Grand Vicar of Acadia the power to receive the consents of marriage while in exile. But they were dispersed and many of them died. The young folks' only recourse then was to marry before a Justice of the Peace, as they refused to be married by Protestant ministers. On their return to Canada, Bishop Briand ordered such marriages to be renewed or validated, but without reflecting on the correctness of the original. Whence it follows that (1) these unions were valid in the first place, but were to be renewed as occasion offered; (2) In the colonies means the American colonies, i.e., the United States; (3) Baltimore is the only place that kept registers prior to 1800. Elsewhere, fire or other causes destroyed the registers. Establishing City Clerks and State Courts for the keeping of adequate registers does not antedate 1800. Also, despite the long researches made by Mr. Richards, Acadian Archivist, he was never able to find any Acadian marriage before 1800, in the United States."

2nd MARRIAGE OF FRANÇOIS LAFAILLE. The family register on the previous page is restricted entirely to his first marriage. However, it is evident that the following extract proved that he married a second time. L'Acadie, 1819, folio 148.
 "The 22 November 1819, after the publication of 3 banns of matrimony from the pulpit at our parochial Masses on three consecutive Sundays between François Lafay farmer, widower of the late Marguerite Foret, his father and mother of this parish, of the first part; and Madeleine Lépine major widow of the late Antoine Panquet of this parish, of the 2nd part; no impediment to said marriage having been discovered, we priest, undersigned Pastor, received their mutual consent after having received that of their relatives and gave them the nuptial benediction according to the rites prescribed by our mother Holy Church. Present were Clement Faille son of the groom, Charles Plante friend, Jean Etienne Bro, acting as father of the bride, Eli Caisse, friend, who declared that they knew not how to sign this register, reading 'One.Paculien'. BURIAL OF MARGUERITE FORET. Record not found, but others show that it must have occurred between 1813 and 1819.
BURIAL OF FRANÇOIS LAFAILLE. L'Acadie, 1824, folio 197. "June 16, 1824, we undersigned priest buried in the cemetery of this parish the body of François Lafay farmer, deceased the day before yesterday, fortified by the Sacraments of the Church. He was 80 years old and the husband of Marguerite Lépine. Present: Jean B. Dubé and Ambrose Commeau, who declared their inability to sign. A.Brais, priest".

NOTE:-- Both our parents were buried from St. Aloysius Church, Spokane, Wash., in Fairmont Cemetery, in the same lot, their graves having the same stone marker. No. 3, Isaiah Roy, always signed his name as I.P. Roy, but he was baptized Peter Iaale. He was married in the mission of Momence, Illinois, by the pastor of St. Anne, Illinois, where we found his marriage record.

No. 4, PHILIP ROY, always went by this name, but it does not appear in his baptismal record. He signed P.L. ROY. After his death, his widow Rose married again, this time to Athanasius Houle of Little Falls, Minn., Mar. 11, 1921, at Belle Prairie, Minn., in Holy Family Church; but he died on Mar. 17, 1935, at Little Falls. On June 4, 1938, in Queen of Angels Catholic Church, Port Angeles, Wash., she took her 3rd husband, Ernest Doucette, a barber, whom she left a widower about 1946. Her remains were then brought to Remington, Indiana, to rest beside her first husband's, in the Catholic Cemetery.

No. 6, our Uncle Frank Roy, the writer's godfather, is still living at this writing, May 1955, with the family of his daughter Helen, whose address is: Mr. & Mrs. Albert Menz, Route 2, El Reno, Okla.

No. 10, our Uncle Mose Roy and wife, are still living in Oklahoma City at this writing, May 1955; address last rec'd: 504½ West Grand.

CHAPTER VII

EXTRACTS FROM THE REGISTERS for JOSEPH ROY'S FAMILY

1. BAPTISM of OLIVINE ROY. St. Jean, P.Q., Vol. for 1855. "On the 25th of March 1855, we undersigned priest baptized Marie Rosalie Olivine, born this day of the legitimate marriage of Joseph Roy farmer and of Olive Laure of this parish. Sponsors: Raphael Moreau and his wife Rosalie Roy, who with the father said they knew not how to sign. N. Piché, priest".
MARRIAGE of OLIVINE ROY. Certificate in her possession, dated Nov. 18, 1879, State of Illinois, Kankakee Co.
"This certifies that Dosithe Gervais of Momenca in the State of Illinois and Olivine Roy of St. George in the State of Illinois were at St. George's Church in said County by me joined together in HOLY MATRIMONY on the 18th day of Nov. in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and 79, in presence of Joseph Roy and Denise Jervais. (Signed): I.C. Lesage, Priest"
Note:-- Mother told us older children that her brother, Philip, was, with Dad's sister, Denise, witness at her wedding, and that Philip must have given his father's name instead of his own. No one signed but the priest who officiated.
BURIAL of OLIVINE ROY. Record never copied. We vouch for the correctness of the date of her decease, etc.
2. BAPTISM of JOSEPH HENRY ROY. St. Jean, P.Q., Vol. V, 1153 to 1861, p. 106, No. 71. "This first day of July 1856, we undersigned assistant at St. Jean, baptized Joseph Henri, born this day of the legitimate union of Joseph Roy farmer and of Olive Laure of this parish. Sponsors: Joseph Boudrault and Emélie Laure who signed with us, the father not knowing how. Joseph Boudreau Emélie Lord L. G. Gagnier, priest".
BURIAL of Joseph Henry. Record may exist somewhere, but we never learned the name of the place. That he was drowned accidentally in the Mississippi River at Davenport, Iowa, on the 11th of July 1875, is the information given us by Mother and several other relatives.
3. BAPTISM of ISALAH ROY. St. Jean, P.Q., Vol. V, p. 169, No. 43. "This 17th day of April 1858, we undersigned Pastor of St. Jean baptized Pierre Isale, born yesterday of the legitimate union of Joseph Roy and Olive Lord of this parish. Sponsors: Pierre Roy, who with the father knew not how to sign, and Eudoxie Vincelette undersigned. Eudoxie Vincelette C. LaRoque, priest".
MARRIAGE of ISALAH ROY. Though married in St. Patrick's Church, Momenca, Illinois, apparently a mission of St. Anne, 7 miles south of there, the record was kept by Father Letellier, Pastor. in the register of 1877 for the latter parish. Both towns are served by the C. & E. I. Ry., and the parishioners used to fetch the priest for services by hand car and then return him via. same transportation. We copied the following directly from the register in St. Anne's Church. "November 25, 1877, I undersigned joined in matrimony Isale Roy of Momenca, son of Joseph Roy, and Josephine Chartier of Momenca, daughter of Jean Baptiste Chartier. Witnesses: Joseph Roy and J. B. Chartier. (Signed): M. Letellier, pastor".
NOTE:-- How incomplete for genealogical purposes such records are; the mothers of the parties do not appear.
BURIAL of ISALAH ROY. We have been unable to obtain the record, but we did learn from a relative that he died May 10, 1933 at Wakita, Okla. A letter from his widow informed us that she and husband were Baptists. Although she married a Roy in 1877 and lived with him till 1933, she wrote us that she knew nothing about the Roys. We heard that she died about 1942, at Wakita, Okla.
4. BAPTISM of PHILIP ROY. St. Jean, P.Q., Vol. V, folio 254, No. 111. "On the 29th of July 1860, we, undersigned assistant, baptized Louis Auguste Apollinaire, born this day of the legitimate marriage of Joseph Roy and Olive Lord of this parish, whose sponsors were Joseph Lord and Rose Roy, who with the father declared that they knew not how to sign this register. (Signed): C. A. Bolssonneault, asst. priest". See note on the previous page.
BAPTISM of ROSE CAISSE. St. Mary's Church, Beaverville, Illinois, 1861. "On the 23rd of December 1861, We, undersigned priest baptized Rosalie Caisse, born on the 6th inst. of the legitimate marriage of David Caisse and of Emélie Delaunet of this parish, St. Mary. Sponsors: Delphis Lefebvre and Caroline St. Pierre. --J. Côté, Priest".
THEIR MARRIAGE. See next page.

4. MARRIAGE of PHILIP L. ROY. St. Mary's Church, Beaverville, Illinois, 1882, page 133. "On November 7, 1882, after the publication of one bann of matrimony at our parochial Mass between Louis Philip Roy farmer, major son of Joseph Roy farmer and of Olive Lord of Earl Park (Indiana), of the first part; and of Rose Caisse, minor daughter of David Caisse farmer and of Emelie Delonals, all of this parish, of the second part; the publication of the three banns having been made at said Earl Park as appears in the certificate of the missionary at that place, no impediment to said marriage having been found, we undersigned priest, pastor of this parish, received their mutual consent and with the agreement of the parents of the minor party, gave them the nuptial benediction in the presence of David Caisse father of the bride and of Dosité Gervais undersigned, the father of the bride having declared that he knew not how so sign. The two parties signed with us. Phillip L. Roy Rose Caisse Dosité Gervais L. G. S. Langlois, priest".
BURIAL of PHILIP L. ROY. Remington, Indiana. Record was not copied. Uncle died at Rennsaeler, Indiana, about 14 miles north of Remington, Dec. 6, 1919, when the writer was stationed in Indianapolis at the time, and attended the funeral, but failed to take note of the date of the funeral.
5. BAPTISM of VITAL THEODULE ROY. St. Jean, P.Q., Vol. VI, 1861 to 1867, folio 26, No. 52. "On the 4th of May 1862, we undersigned assistant priest at St. Jean baptized Vital Théodule, born of the legitimate union of Joseph Roy and Olive Lord of this parish. Sponsors: Vital Lord undersigned and Philomene Leclair, who as also the father, could not sign. (Signed): Vital Lord M. Jasmin, priest". BURIAL. August 4, 1862, at L'Acadie, at the age of three months.
6. BAPTISM of FRANK E. ROY. St. Jean, P.Q., Vol. VI, 1861 to 1867, folio 89, No. 116. "This 16th of August 1863, We Asst. Priest undersigned baptized Francis Edward, born yesterday of the legitimate marriage of Joseph Roy farmer and of Olive Lord of this parish. Sponsors: Joseph Roy and Marguerite Lord undersigned. (Signed): Joseph Roy Marguerite Lord J. Perreault pt" FIRST MARRIAGE. St. John the Baptist Church, Earl Park, Indiana, 1885. "This is to certify that by authority of the Roman Catholic Church and also by license received from the State of Indiana, Earl Park, Penton Co., to solemnize Marriages, Mr. François Roy and Miss Maggie Geis were on this 19th day of May A.D. 1885 joined in the Holy Bands of Matrimony. (Signed): C. Maujay, Pastor of St. John the Baptist Church. Witnesses: Charles Case Rose Roy".
DECEASE of MAGGIE GEIS. Church record not obtained, but close relatives reported it as of May 24, 1918, Yukon, Oklahoma. SECOND MARRIAGE of FRANK E. ROY. St. Joseph Church, Union City, Oklahoma, 1925. "I, the undersigned, do hereby certify that on the 13th day of April A.D. 1925, in the Church of St. Joseph, Union City, Oklahoma, joined in the Holy Bonds of Matrimony François Roy and Eugénie Rouan-Thoreau, according to the rites of the Holy Roman Catholic Church. Witnesses: Joseph A. Scholles and C.P. Vanderginten. (Signed): A. J. Vanderginten".
DECEASE of FRANK E. ROY'S 2nd WIFE, Eugénie Rouan-Thoreau-Roy. Church record not obtained, but reliable report / it as of September 27, 1945, Oklahoma City, where she was buried.
7. BAPTISM of AZELLIE ROY. St. Jean, P.Q., Vol. VI., folio 176, No. 58. "This eleventh day of April 1865, We undersigned Assistant Priest at St. Jean baptized Marie Louise Azellie, born yesterday of the legitimate marriage of Joseph Roy of this parish and of Olive Lord. Sponsors: Edward Lord and Louise Ferland, who knew not how to sign. J. Perreault Priest".
MARRIAGE of AZELLIE ROY. St. John the Baptist Church, Earl Park, Indiana, 1885. "This is to certify that by authority of the Roman Catholic Church and also by licence received from the State of Indiana, Earl Park, Benton Co., to solemnize Marriages, Mr. John Nicholas Geis of Louisville, Kentucky, and Miss Azellie Roy were on this 13th day of April 1885 joined in the Holy Bonds of Matrimony. (Signed): C. Maujay, Pastor of St. John the Baptist Church. Witnesses: DECEASE of AZELLIE ROY-GEIS. Church record not obtained, but relatives have given April 30, 1903, Lanesville, Indiana, as the correct date.
8. BAPTISM of THOMAS ROY. St. Jean, P.Q., "This 14th day of September 1866, We undersigned Priest baptized Joseph Charles Thomas, born yesterday of the legitimate marriage of Joseph Roy farmer and of Olive Laure of this parish. Sponsors: Thomas Roy and Olive Lafaille, who knew not how to sign. The father was absent. F. Aubry, Priest".
Burial of Jos. Chas. Thos. Roy. "Feb. 28, 1867, we undersigned Assistant of St. Jean buried in the cemetery of this parish the body of Jos. Chas. Thos., deceased day before yesterday, child of Jos. Roy farmer & of Olive Roy... L.D. Laferrriere."

CHAPTER VII

9. BAPTISM of ROSE EMMA ROY. Church of St. George, Kankakee Co., Illinois, Register for 1860, p.160, No.169.
"Catherine Rose Emma, baptized 26 November 1867, born the day before of the legitimate marriage of Joseph Roy & Olive Laure. Sponsors: Alexander Laure & Domitilde Boudreau. --P. Paradis, priest".
"BAPTISM of CHARLES SIGO, sub-conditional, in St. Joseph's Church, Kentland, Indiana, February 24, 1868; born August 3, 1863, son of Louis Sigo & Aglée Faucher; sponsors: Meddie Sigo. --N. C. Miller (priest)." NOTE:--Uncle Charles Sigo had been baptized in St. Anne, Illinois, in the First Presbyterian Church, by the excommunicated Catholic priest, C. Chiniqny, the record of which is still preserved in that Protestant rectory, and reads as follows: "1864, 14B --3 July--Charles born Aug. 10, 1863, of Louis Sigo and Aglée Sigo.--(Signed): C.Chiniqny". The birthday is wrong by a week; it should be Aug.3.
MARRIAGE of AUNT ROSE & UNCLE CHARLES SIGO. St. Anthony Church(Generally known as Dehner's Church, a country parish in Benton County, Indiana, so called because Mass was first said there in the home of Anthony Dehner). Destroyed by fire in 1899, it was never rebuilt; but the records are still preserved at Goodland, Indiana, the neighboring parish, in the Church of SS. Peter & Paul Rectory, where we copied the following: "January 9, 1889, Marriage between Charles Sigo and Rose Emma Roy, daughter of Joseph Roy & Olive Roy; witnesses: Mose Roy and Ellen Cullinan. --Strueder (priest)". Such records are quite unsatisfactory for genealogical purposes; quite a contrast to the Canadian records quoted in preceding pages.
Their BURIAL RECORDS. These are preserved in the Rectory of Sacred Heart Parish, Remington, Indiana. We have not copied either of them, but the dates of decease for each given in the preceding family register are correct, as their survivors notified us of them, so that we might attend their funerals -- which we did. However, we failed to note the funeral dates.
10. BAPTISM of MOSE ROY. Church of St. George, Kankakee Co., Illinois, 1870. "Moyse Adolph, baptized 12 January 1870, born the day previous of the legitimate marriage of Joseph Roy and Olive Laure. Sponsors: _____ (Signed): _____
MARRIAGE of Mose Roy. April 11, 1901, at Wichita, Kansas, according to a letter received from him, with Miss Elizabeth E. Barkus. Probably not a church record. We never searched for it. Both parties still living at this writing, in Okla.City.
11. BAPTISM of EDWARD HOMER ROY. Church of St.George, Kankakee, Illinois, 1871. "Julien Edward Homer, baptized Nov. 19, 1871, born on the 13th inst. of the legitimate marriage of Joseph Roy and of Olive Lord. Sponsors: _____ (Signed): _____
MARRIAGE of EDWARD H. ROY. Record not obtained. In about 1937, he wrote me that he was married in St. Joseph Church, Kentland, Indiana, November 26, 1895, to Mary Ellen Cassidy, daughter of John Cassidy & Bridget Neary, farmers in Benton County, Indiana, and members of St. Anthony Parish, commonly known locally as Dehner's Parish, where she was baptized shortly after birth, which was Dec. 22, 1870. These records are preserved in the Catholic rectory, Goodland, Indiana.
HIS BURIAL and that of his wife, Mary Ellen. Not obtained. She died Oct. 8, 1939, in Louisville, Kentucky, and he died quite suddenly, at home, March 7, 1942, in Louisville, survived by one son and 2 daughters, all married and residing in the same city.

NOTE:-- The missing details in the baptisms of Nos. 10, 11, & 12 could be obtained by writing to the Pastor of St. George Church, Route 2, Bourbonnais, Illinois. John J. Roy, as he used to sign himself, entered Holy Cross Seminary, Feb. 2, 1893, and was still there in November 1896, when the writer entered the Congregation of Holy Cross, Notre Dame, Indiana, as a candidate for the Brotherhood. The following year, August 15th, he received the habit, or cassock of Holy Cross, in St. Joseph's Novitiate, and we were fellow novices till I was transferred to the Brothers' House Studies, March 20, 1898. On the completion of his Novitiate, he was transferred to Holy Cross Seminary, Washington, D.C., in August 1898. There, he made his final vows, August 15, 1899. Shortly afterward, he was given a vacation home, with me as companion, and we visited most of his relatives and mine in Indiana, Illinois, and Minnesota. On our return, he went back to Washington to continue his studies at the Catholic University. In November 1900, he was assigned to our Foreign Mission in Dacca, Bengal. India, sailed for Rome, Italy, where he was ordained priest, March 3, 1901, before continuing his journey to Dacca. We often corresponded and all seemed to be well with him till the spring of 1905, when he mysteriously disappeared. The last letter I received from him was toward the end of March 1905.
